Married Couples Domestic Church Introductory Retreat at Holy Trinity Parish in Weston

Cost $100 per couple (food and materials)

The Married Couples Retreat is an introduction to the Domestic Church Movement, a simple, beautiful gift of formation, support, and true, organic growth in love and faith within the Sacrament of Marriage. Couples may attend the retreat simply to benefit their relationship. Following the retreat they may join a monthly small group where they will receive support and formation to live out the 7 Commitments of the Domestic Church Movement, a set of simple and ordinary actions – lived in the family and home. This formation was developed by the founder, Servant of God, Fr. Blachnicki, under the direction of Archbishop Karol Wotyla (before he became Pope St. John Paul II). The commitments of this movement are principles that couples commit to live in their ordinary family life; things like praying daily as individuals, as a couple, and with their family. The movement provides formation, using the Church's spiritual tradition and official teachings, for how to pray, how to use Scripture in prayer, and how to grow in relationship with God, spouse, and children. The decisions about specific ways to do this are up to the family because they are a domestic church. There are a limited number of slots in our own parish groups to participate in monthly formation. Learn more at www.kcsjfamily.org/light-life or call Dino and Cathy Durando 816-888-0259.

St. Mary's Home for Mothers

This Lent, we will be partnering with St. Mary's Home for Mothers in Liberty to help pregnant women in need.

Our mission, as a residential and community outreach campus, is to make the pro-life path achievable for women in pregnancies by offering healing and education for moms as they bring life into the world.

Representatives from St. Mary's will be here Sunday, February 18th after 10:00AM mass at coffee and donuts, to share with us about the home and ideas how we as a parish can help out.

Dear Friends in Christ-

In the ancient Roman Calendar of the Church, this Sunday began the season of Septuagesima or 70 symbolic days before Easter. In this very short pre-Lenten two-and-a-half week season, we can still consider what we're going to do for Lent this year. You see, if we wait until the Tuesday before Ash Wednesday, we're only going to start implementing our regimen the third week of Lent. That's just human nature. So, now is the time to start thinking!

During this two-and-a-half week period, the Church classically gives us the patriarchs in the Book of Genesis over which to meditate daily. We begin this Sunday with the story of the Garden of Eden. We will hear this same story again at the Easter Vigil as a sort of "bookend" to the whole story. Below, I list the scriptural readings in the book of Matins in the Roman Breviary for the week. They are short clips of the Book of Genesis. We not only contemplate our beginnings as a human family, we also contemplate Original Sin and our state of concupiscence and how during Lent, our penitential practice which includes self-denial and bodily penance, will cause us to be re-ordered like the Risen Christ.

Sunday, January 28 Genesis 1:1-26
Monday, January 29 Genesis 1:27-31, 2:1-10
Tuesday, January 30 Genesis 2:15-24
Wednesday, January 31 Genesis 3:1-20
Thursday, February 1st Genesis 4:1-16
Friday, February 2nd (Candlemas) Genesis 4:17-26, 5:1-5 (Ferial Readings)
Saturday, February 3rd Genesis 5:15-31

Catholic Month of January

Virtue: Perfection

Be ye perfect as your Heavenly Father is perfect.
-Matt. 5:48

If you truly wish to make spiritual profit, you must apply yourself closely to that counsel of the Apostle, Attende tibi----Take heed to thyself. This implies two things: The first is not to become entangled in others' affairs, or watchful as to their defects; since he has no little to do who wishes to manage his own affairs well and correct his own failures. The second is to take our own perfection to heart and attend to it incessantly, without regarding whether others attend to theirs or not. For perfection is so purely individual a matter that, though men who belong to the same order, company, family, or country are here said to make one body; yet, in the world above, it is certain that each one will be separate by himself, and carry his profits and losses to his own account. -Abbot Pastor

Catholic Month of January: The Holy Name of Jesus

PRAYER IN HONOR OF THE MOST HOLY AND ADORABLE NAME OF JESUS

JESUS! O Name of Jesus! Sweet Name! Delightful Name! Consoling Name! For what else is Jesus than Savior! Therefore, O Jesus, for Thy sweet Name's sake, be to me a Jesus, and save me. Suffer me not to be eternally lost. O good Jesus! Let not my iniquities destroy me, whom Thy bounty made. O sweet Jesus! Recognize in me what is Thine, and efface all that is not Thine. O sweet Jesus! Show mercy now in the time of mercy, and condemn me not in the day of justice. What profit to Thy Precious Blood, or what honor will my destruction give Thy Holy Name, O Jesus! "The dead shall not praise Thee, O Lord Jesus! Nor all they that go down to Hell."

Most amiable Jesus! Most meek, most loving Jesus! O Jesus, Jesus, Jesus! Admit me to the number of Thy elect.

O Jesus, salvation of those who believe in Thee! Comfort of those who fly to Thee! O Jesus, Son of the Virgin Mary! Give me grace, wisdom, charity, purity, and humility, that I may love Thee perfectly, praise Thee, enjoy Thee, serve Thee, and be glorified in Thee, with all those who call upon Thy Name, Thy Holy Name, Thy Sweet name-----Jesus. Amen.
