LEGION OF MARY

June is dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. It is a great month to consecrate your home to the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary. The US Catholic Council of Bishops will dedicate our country to the Sacred Heart of Jesus (feast day is June 12th) before the 250th anniversary of the United States July 4. That's another great reason to consecrate your home anytime this year. If you are interested in doing this, there is a sign up sheet in the back of the church. Fill out your information and a Legion of Mary member will contact you.

FROM FATHER DREW HE DERIVED PLEASURE FROM WHAT SADDENS US

Friends, the feast (Solemnity) of Saints Peter and Paul is Monday. Below is a beautiful piece from Saint John Chrysostom, d407 AD, on St Paul ...

Though housed in a narrow prison, Paul dwelt in heaven. He accepted beatings and wounds more readily than others reach out for rewards. Sufferings he loved as much as prizes; indeed he regarded them as his prizes, and therefore called them a grace or gift.

Reflect on what this means. To depart and be with Christ was certainly a reward, while remaining in the flesh meant struggle. Yet such was his longing for Christ that he wanted to defer his reward and remain amid the fight; those were his priorities. Now, to be separated from the company of Christ meant struggle and pain for Paul; in fact, it was a greater affliction than any struggle or pain would be. On the other hand, to be with Christ was a matchless reward. Yet, for the sake of Christ, Paul chose the separation.

But, you may say: "Because of Christ, Paul found all this pleasant." I cannot deny that, for he derived intense pleasure from what saddens us. I need not think only of perils and hardships. It was true even of the intense sorrow that made him cry out: Who is weak that I do not share the weakness? Who is scandalized that I am not consumed with indignation?

I urge you not simply to admire but also to imitate this splendid example of virtue, for, if we do, we can share his crown as well.

Are you surprised at my saying that if you have Paul's merits, you will share that same reward? Then listen to Paul himself: I have fought the good fight, I have run the race, I have kept the faith. Henceforth a crown of justice awaits me, and the Lord, who is a just judge, will give it to me on that day – and not to me alone, but to those who desire his coming. You see how he calls all to share the same glory?

Now, since the same crown of glory is offered to all, let us eagerly strive to become worthy of these promised blessings.

In thinking of Paul we should not consider only his noble and lofty virtues or the strong and ready will that disposed him for such great graces. We should also realize that he shares our nature in every respect. If we do, then even what is very difficult will seem to us easy and light; we shall work hard during the short time we have on earth and someday we shall wear the incorruptible, immortal crown. This we shall do by the grace and mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ, to whom all glory and power belongs now and always through endless ages. Amen.

WE HAVE ALL BEEN GROOMED...AND IT IS NOT PRETTY

On Wednesday, July 15, at 7:00 pm in the parish hall, Terry Miller will expose and explain the serious threats to our faith in Christ by belief in Aliens and Evolution that has been and is being actively promoted over the decades and especially this summer! "Truth or Deception" and "Salvation or Damnation" are the consequences of what we believe and that guide our life decisions. Become equipped to discern the lies being foisted upon us and our family and friends!

WELCOME TO FATHER FENLON

The Visitation Sodality will be hosting a Welcome Party for Fr. Fenlon (pronounced Fen-Lawn) after the 10:45 am Mass on Sunday, July 5th.
REMINDER - There is NO MASS or Confession this Wednesday, July 1st.

LECTORS NEEDED

We are in need of a few more men to lector on Sunday mornings. We need one to fill in the rotation once a month and would love to have a couple of backups we can call if needed. We also would like a few more people trained as Sacristans. If interested, please reach out to Sharon in the parish office.
