Commandment of the Month for January

The 5th Commandment

"You Shall Not Kill"

Have you ever considered that physical killing is just one of the ways we can kill? Words, and the tone in which we used them, can cut to the bone, killing someone's reputation, their enthusiasm, and their self-worth. Lies and gossip can destroy a person's reputation and sever relationships. Our words, and the tone of our voice, don't originate in our mouth. They originate in our heart. Therefore, to help us avoid killing through our words, Jesus warns in Matthew 5:21-22:

"You have heard that it was said, 'You shall not kill'; and whoever kills will be liable to judgment. But I say to you, whoever is angry with his brother will be liable to judgment."

Have you ever spoken in anger, resentment, jealousy, or impatience and then realized how your words pierced the heart of someone you love? Most everyone has, and therefore we all could benefit from spending some time better understanding how the 5th Commandment is relevant for all of us.

A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR
FR. KEVIN DREW

Christmas Ending

*Wherever the Catholic sun doth shine,
There's always laughter and good red wine.
At least I've always found it so.
Benedicamus Domino! (Hilaire Belloc, d.1953.)*

Christmas, the sacred season in which we celebrate the birth of Christ, our Sun of Justice, the Light who pierces the darkness, ended this week. Did you have a good Christmas? That depends on another question: Did you have a good Advent?

Recall the dark days of Advent, the preparatory season that began at the end of November. I preached how Advent was once known (and God-willing will be known again) as “Little Lent.” During Advent recall that clerics don the penitential color violet, the Gloria is not sung, floral arrangements are minimized, and the organ (if a parish has one) is toned down. The holy season of Advent was a time to meditate in the winter darkness on the two comings of Christ, first as a newborn and then again as our Just Judge. Advent then was a time to reflect on our sins – our acts of selfishness, greed, and pettiness. This reflection should naturally have led us to acts of penance and mortification. It should have led to the confessional. Unfortunately, this has been lost on the majority of Catholics today who have been taught to ignore the bad news of sin.

A priest (Msgr. Pope) wrote:
...one of the great problems in the Church today is the suppression of the 'bad news.' Many in the Church [priests and bishops] prefer not to talk clearly and directly about sin. If it is mentioned at all, it is usually by way of abstractions and generalities. The paradoxical result of this suppression is not a happier Church, but a lukewarm, in some ways sadder one. Largely gone then are the religious festivals, the joyful processions, and the confident public expression of Catholic faith.

So remember this: A good Advent sets the stage for a joyful Christmas. This joy is different from the sentimentality about snow, lights, and tinsel. It is a deep, grateful joy that comes from knowing we are loved and have been rescued despite our sin. Permanent joy and salvation await us if we persevere in running the race of faith. Paradoxically, it comes from being deeply aware of our sinful condition. Make a good Advent. Listen carefully to its message: 'You need a savior!' If you deny sin, you deny the Savior. If you deny the Savior and the need for salvation, then Christmas and the cross are emptied of meaning.

If you had a bad Advent and therefore a rather meaningless Christmas, here is the good news: Lent begins February 18. We will put violet back on again and we will go out to the desert with Christ. We will prepare ourselves, like Christ did, spiritually and physically for our mission. Then once again, on April 5 the Catholic sun will shine on us. We will have a joyful, festive and meaningful Easter.

Benedicamus Domino! (Let us bless the Lord!)

CATHOLIC MONTH OF JANUARY

THE HOLY NAME OF JESUS

The month of January is dedicated to the Holy Name of Jesus, which is celebrated on January 3. The first ten days of January fall during the liturgical season known as Christmas which is represented by the liturgical color white the color of light, a symbol of joy, purity and innocence (absolute or restored). The remaining days of January are the beginning of Ordinary Time, which is represented by the liturgical color green. This symbol of hope is the color of the sprouting seed and arouses in the faithful the hope of reaping the eternal harvest of heaven, especially the hope of a glorious resurrection.

VIRTUE: PERFECTION
BE YE PERFECT AS YOUR HEAVENLY FATHER IS PERFECT.----
MATT. 5:48

I hear nothing talked of but perfection; yet I see it practiced only by few. Everyone forms his own ideal of it. Some place it in simplicity of attire; some in austerity; some in almsgiving; some in frequent reception of the Sacraments; this one, in prayer; that one, in passive contemplation; and another, in the gifts called gratuitous. But, by a general mistake, they take the effects for the cause, and the means for the end. For my part, I know of no other perfection than loving God with all the heart, and our neighbor as ourselves. Whoever imagines any other kind of perfection deceives himself, for the whole accumulation of virtues without this is but a heap of stones. And if we do not immediately and perfectly enjoy this treasure of holy love, the fault is in us. We are too slow and ungenerous with God, and do not give ourselves up entirely to Him, as the Saints did.----St. Francis de Sales
