Commandment of the Month for January

The 5th Commandment

"You Shall Not Kill"

The 5th Commandment tells us, "Do not kill." However, today's culture has diminished the sacredness of human life, of parenthood, and of family. Too often, the news headlines report of yet another assault on human life. How do we restore the honor and respect for what God has created in His image and likeness, as holy and sacred?

The 5th Commandment is one of ten vital defenses for restoring our culture to one that honors and respects life, parenthood, and family. The full set of ten defenses are the Ten Commandments that teach us to love our neighbor as we love ourselves. But to live them well, to teach them to the children in your life and transform our culture to one of life, you need to know them and know them well. Not just as a list of rules, but as God's recipe for a joy-filled and wonderful life.

Restoring society's respect for life starts with you and your family. Then, along with other families at your parish, as you learn and live the Commandments, collectively you will begin to transform your community. As other parishes throughout your area and across the country join you in restoring God's truth and the timeless wisdom of His Ten Commandments, society will be transformed to one that values the gift of life.

A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

FR. KEVIN DREW

St. Ignatius of Antioch

It is better to remain silent and to be, than talk and not be.

In 107 AD St Ignatius of Antioch wrote seven letters while being transported under chains to Rome to be fed to lions in the Colosseum. Below is a part of his letter to the church at Ephesus. Note how he states faith is just the beginning of our journey and not the end. Note his warning of eternal damnation to those who corrupt families. And note his appreciation for those who emulate Christ by remaining silent as opposed to talking all the time ...

Try to gather together more frequently to give thanks to God and to praise him. For when you come together frequently, Satan's powers are undermined, and the destruction that he threatens is done away with in the unanimity of your faith. Nothing is better than peace, in which all warfare between heaven and earth is brought to an end.

None of this will escape you if you have perfect faith and love toward Jesus Christ. These are the beginning and the end of life: faith the beginning, love the end. When these two are found together, there is God, and everything else concerning right living follows from them. No one professing faith sins: no one possessing love hates. A tree is known by its fruit. So those who profess to belong to Christ will be known by what they do. For the work we are about is not a matter of words here and now, but depends on the power of faith and on being found faithful to the end.

It is better to remain silent and to be than talk and not be. Teaching is good if the speaker also acts. Now there was one teacher who spoke, and it was made, and even what he did in silence is worthy of the Father. He who has the word of Jesus can truly listen also to his silence, in order to be perfect, that he may act through his speech and be known by his silence. Nothing is hidden from the Lord, but even our secrets are close to him. Let us then do everything in the knowledge that he is dwelling within us that we may be his temples, and he God within us. He is, and will reveal himself, in our sight, according to the love we bear him in holiness.

Make no mistake, my brothers: those who corrupt families will not inherit the kingdom of God. If those who do these things in accordance with the flesh have died, how much worse will it be if one corrupts through evil doctrine the faith of God for which Jesus Christ was crucified? Such a person, because he is defiled, will depart into the unquenchable fire, as will anyone who listens to him.

For the Lord received anointing on his head in order that he might breathe incorruptibility on the Church. Do not be anointed with the evil odor of the teachings of the prince of this world, that he may not lead you captive away from the life that is set before you. But why is it that we are not all wise when we have received the knowledge of God, which is Jesus Christ? Why do we perish in our stupidity, not knowing the gift the Lord has truly sent us?

LENT IS RIGHT AROUND THE CORNER

ASH WEDNESDAY is February 18th. Mass will be at 5:30 pm that evening, or 8:30 am & 7:30 pm in Excelsior Springs. There will be Stations of the Cross every Friday in Lent, February 20 - March 27 starting at 6:00 pm. And of course, the Knights will be offering THREE Fish Fry Evenings....
