Commandment of the Month for January

The 6th Commandment

"You Shall Not Commit Adultery"

With the 6th Commandment, God instructs each of us to honor and protect marriage, family, and life. Yet, over the past sixty years, as adultery has become accepted and even the norm, the mystery, glory, and authentic intimacy of marriage have suffered. As a result, marriages, families, and life have suffered the consequences.

Satan wants us to accept that the mystery and glory has been lost forever and to give in to the culture. But too much is at stake! Our salvation, and the salvation of our children are at stake! Therefore, take a stand. Learn what the Catholic teachings are on the beauty, purpose, and glory of the Sacrament of Matrimony and the privilege of being co-creators of life with God.

Then, engage with the children in your life about the wonder, blessings, and reverence of their bodies and Holy Matrimony. Teach them how authentic love is modeled through sacramental marriage and how preserving themselves is the greatest gift a person can offer their future bride or husband. If we don't restore the sacredness of our bodies and the preciousness of Holy Matrimony, our sexualized culture will continue to mislead our children and jeopardize their salvation.

PRAYERS FOR OUR PARISH FAMILY
We pray for our elderly, infirm, and homebound:

O God, your Son accepted sufferings to teach us the virtue of patience in human illness. Hear the prayers we offer for our sick brothers and sisters. May all who suffer pain, illness or disease realize that they are chosen to be saints, and know that they are joined to Christ in his suffering for the salvation of the world, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen

A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR
FR. KEVIN DREW

St. Augustine on Galatians

Below is an excellent explanation from St Augustine (d.430 AD) on St Paul's letter to the Galatians. It shows that the Old Law was fulfilled by the New Law who is Christ.

Let us understand the workings of God's grace ...

Paul writes to the Galatians to make them understand that by God's grace they are no longer under the law. When the Gospel was preached to them, there were some among them of Jewish origin known as circumcisers—though they called themselves Christians—who did not grasp the gift they had received. They still wanted to be under the burden of the law. Now God had imposed that burden on those who were slaves to sin and not on servants of justice.

That is to say, God had given a just law to unjust men in order to show them their sin, not to take it away. For sin is taken away only by the gift of faith that works through love. The Galatians had already received this gift, but the circumcisers claimed that the Gospel would not save them unless they underwent circumcision and were willing to observe also the other traditional Jewish rites.

The Galatians, therefore, began to question Paul's preaching of the Gospel because he did not require Gentiles to follow Jewish observances as other apostles had done. Even Peter had yielded to the scandalized protests of the circumcisers. He pretended to believe that the Gospel would not save the Gentiles unless they fulfilled the burden of the law. But Paul recalled him from such dissimulation, as is shown in this very same letter. A similar issue arises in Paul's letter to the Romans, but with an evident difference. Through his letter to them Paul was able to resolve the strife and controversy that had developed between the Jewish and Gentile converts.

In the present letter Paul is writing to persons who were profoundly influenced and disturbed by the circumcisers. The Galatians had begun to believe them and to think that Paul had not preached rightly, since he had not ordered them to be circumcised. And so the Apostle begins by saying: I am amazed that you are so quickly deserting him who called you to the glory of Christ, and turning to another gospel.

After this there comes a brief introduction to the point at issue. But remember in the very opening of the letter Paul had said that he was an apostle not from men nor by any man, a statement that does not appear in any other letter of his. He is making it quite clear that the circumcisers, for their part, are not from God but from men, and that his authority in preaching the Gospel must be considered equal to that of the other apostles. For he was called to be an apostle not from men nor by any man, but through God the Father and his Son, Jesus Christ.

CLEANING HELP NEEDED

We are looking for volunteers to help with cleaning the church and hall on a weekly basis. Church cleaning can be done any day of the week. Hall cleaning takes place anytime from Thursday evening - Saturday afternoon when Frassati classes are in session. Please contact Heather Boddicker 319-541-3750 to volunteer.

LENT BEGINS THIS WEEK

Every year in Advent I always stress that we need to fast before the feast, in order to make the Christmas season so much more meaningful, fun and festive. (Mine sure was thanks to so many of you parishioners who helped make my Christmas so fun and joyful.) Directly before Lent, the custom took hold of feasting before fasting. For in earlier times, Catholics did not eat meat, eggs, cheese, butter, bacon and milk during Lent. And with modern refrigeration not yet invented, people ate up all this good food in what became known as a carnelevarum – a “farewell to meat.” Think of the word carnivore (meat eater).

From carnivore think of the word carnival, a feast of rich foods before the start of Lent. Hence we have the name “Fat Tuesday,” In French that is Mardi Gras. Please start preparing for your 40 day venture out into the Lenten desert. Prepare with a Fat Tuesday if you wish. Then start the holy and penitential season of Lent strong, and stay that way throughout the 40 days. This will increase your chances of having a meaningful and festive Easter.

Laws for Fasting and Abstinence

Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are the two obligatory days of fasting and abstinence for Catholics. In addition, Fridays during Lent are obligatory days of abstinence. For members of the Latin Catholic Church, the norms on fasting are obligatory from age 18 until age 59. When fasting, a person is permitted to eat one full meal, as well as two smaller meals that together are not equal to a full meal. The norms concerning abstinence from meat are binding upon members of the Latin Catholic Church from age 14 onwards.

SEALED WITH THE GIFT OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

Confirmation will be held on Sunday afternoon, February 15 at 1:30 pm at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Kansas City. Please pray for those receiving this beautiful sacrament.

LEGION OF MARY

The Legion of Mary is a world wide lay apostolic association of Catholics dedicated to praying and working for Mary for the salvation of souls. The parish needs people willing to give a little of their time to Mary. There's not a better person to pray and work for but Mary, and not a better reason to pray and work than for the salvation of souls.

Meetings are Sunday mornings at 9:15 AM in the Rectory.
