From Bishop Johnston

"With sadness and surprise the Catholic Church and the world learned of the unexpected death of Pope Francis early this morning. Having just celebrated the victory of Jesus Christ over sin and death at Easter, I urge Catholics and others to remember Pope Francis in prayer as he completes his journey of faith in the risen Lord. Let us remember with gratitude Pope Francis' consistent admonition that no person be forgotten or written off, that God's mercy is extended to all, and that the Church must continually go to the peripheries of the world to be near all God's children. May Pope Francis, an apostle of God's mercy, now rest in that same mercy and God's everlasting peace." - Bishop Johnston

TRANSLATIONS FOR MASS

Introit – 1 Pet. 2:2

As newborn babes, alleluia, long for pure spiritual milk, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia. Rejoice in honor of God our helper; shout for joy to the God of Jacob.

Communion – Jo 20: 27 V. Ps 117: 1, 2, 5, 8, 10, 11, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17
Put in thy finger and know the place of the nails: and be not faithless, but believing. 1. Give praise to the Lord, for he is good, for his mercy endures forever. 2. Let Israel now say, that he is good, that his mercy endures forever. 3. In my trouble I called upon the Lord, and the Lord heard me, and enlarged me. 4. It is good to confide in the Lord, rather than to have confidence in man. 5. All nations compassed me about, and in the name of the Lord I have been revenged on them. 6. Surrounding me they compassed me about, and in the name of the Lord I have been revenged on them. 7. Being pushed I was overturned that I might fall, but the Lord supported me. 8. The Lord is my strength and my praise, and he is become my salvation. 9. The voice of rejoicing and of salvation is in the tabernacles of the just: The right hand of the Lord hath wrought strength. 10. The right hand of the Lord hath exalted me; the right hand of the Lord hath wrought strength. 11. I shall not die, but live and shall declare the works of the Lord.

A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

FR. KEVIN DREW

From an Easter homily by Melito of Sardis, bishop (d.180 AD)

We should understand, beloved, that the paschal mystery is at once old and new, transitory and eternal, corruptible and incorruptible, mortal and immortal. In terms of the Law it is old, in terms of the Word it is new. In its figure it is passing, in its grace it is eternal. It is corruptible in the sacrifice of the lamb, incorruptible in the eternal life of the Lord. It is mortal in his burial in the earth, immortal in his resurrection from the dead.

The Law indeed is old, but the Word is new. The type is transitory, but grace is eternal. The lamb was corruptible, but the Lord is incorruptible. He was slain as a lamb; he rose again as God. He was led like a sheep to the slaughter, yet he was not a sheep. He was silent as a lamb, yet he was not a lamb. The type has passed away; the reality has come. The lamb gives place to God, the sheep gives place to a man, and the man is Christ, who fills the whole of creation. The sacrifice of the lamb, the celebration of the Passover, and the prescriptions of the Law have been fulfilled in Jesus Christ. Under the old Law, and still more under the new dispensation, everything pointed toward him.

Both the Law and the Word came forth from Zion and Jerusalem, but now the Law has given place to the Word, the old to the new. The commandment has become grace, the type a reality. The lamb has become a Son, the sheep a man, and man, God.

The Lord, though he was God, became man. He suffered for the sake of those who suffer, he was bound for those in bonds, condemned for the guilty, buried for those who lie in the grave; but he rose from the dead, and cried aloud: Who will contend with me? Let him confront me. I have freed the condemned, brought the dead back to life, raised men from their graves. Who has anything to say against me? I, he said, am the Christ; I have destroyed death, triumphed over the enemy, trampled hell underfoot, bound the strong one, and taken men up to the heights of heaven: I am the Christ.

Come, then, all you nations of men, receive forgiveness for the sins that defile you. I am your forgiveness. I am the Passover that brings salvation. I am the lamb who was immolated for you. I am your ransom, your life, your resurrection, your light, I am your salvation and your king. I will bring you to the heights of heaven. With my own right hand I will raise you up, and I will show you the eternal Father.

CATHOLIC MONTH OF APRIL

THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

Act of Reparation

O kind and merciful savior, from my heart I earnestly desire to return Thee love for love. My greatest sorrow is that Thou art not loved by men, and, in particular, that my own heart is so cold, so selfish, so ungrateful. Keenly aware of my own weakness and poverty, I trust that Thy own grace will enable me to offer Thee an act of pure love. And I wish to offer Thee this act of love in reparation for the coldness and neglect that are shown to Thee in the sacrament of Thy love by Thy creatures. O Jesus, my supreme good, I love Thee, not for the sake of the reward which Thou hast promised to those who love Thee, but purely for Thyself. I love Thee above all things that can be loved, above all pleasures, and above myself and all that is not Thee, promising in the presence of heaven and earth that I will live and die purely and simply in Thy holy love, and that if to love Thee thus I must endure persecution and suffering I am completely satisfied, and I will ever say with Saint Paul: Nothing "will be able to separate us from the love of God." O Jesus, supreme master of all hearts, I love Thee, I adore Thee, I praise Thee, I thank Thee, because I am now all Thine own. Rule over me, and transform my soul into the likeness of Thyself, so that it may bless and glorify Thee forever in the abode of the saints. --Saint Margaret Mary Alacoque

VIRTUE: PATIENCE

WHOEVER DOES NOT TAKE UP HIS CROSS AND FOLLOW ME, IS NOT WORTHY OF ME. ---MATT. 10:38

Bishop Johnston's Prayer intentions for the month of April

For all musicians and those who teach and tutor others in learning how to play an instrument, to sing, compose, and appreciate music. That they be supported and blessed in their profession and efforts to enrich the world with beauty.

Prayers for Our Parish Family

We pray for our elderly, infirm, and home-bound:

O God, your Son accepted sufferings to teach us the virtue of patience in human illness. Hear the prayers we offer for our sick brothers and sisters. May all who suffer pain, illness or disease realize that they are chosen to be saints, and know that they are joined to Christ in his suffering for the salvation of the world, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.
