COMMANDMENTS OF THE MONTH FOR MAY

THE 9TH & 10TH
COMMANDMENTS

*“You shall not covet your neighbor’s wife.
You shall not covet your neighbor’s goods.”*

Comparing the house we live in, our clothes, toys, appearance and talents to what others have often leads to negative feelings and complaining. There will always be others with seemingly more, tempting us to be discontent and complain about the blessings God has showered upon each of us. But, embracing an attitude of Gratitude and practicing Generosity breaks down the resentment and jealousy of covetousness and replaces it with the rich soil for abundant happiness and authentic love to grow. Visit with your children about how it makes them feel when they are being Grateful and what they feel when they are Generous with others.

Here are some questions you can ask them.

- When are some good times throughout the day to tell God “Thank You” for what He provides us?
- How does it make you feel when others are generous with you? What are some ways you can be generous with others?
- What are some good ways that you can show others that you are grateful for what they do for you?

Located at Conception Abbey. In honor of those killed in France in the Fall of 1918.

Prayer for Pope Leo XIV
by Bishop Joseph Strickland

O Lord Jesus Christ, Eternal High Priest, Thou hast permitted Pope Leo XIV to ascend the Chair of Peter at a time of great confusion and suffering for Thy flock. We place him into Thy Sacred Heart, praying that he may be conformed ever more deeply to Thee, governed not by the spirit of the age, but by the Spirit of Truth. Grant him the grace to teach with clarity, to govern with justice and humility, and to sanctify Thy people in truth. Let him be a rock for the faithful, a light for those in darkness, and a defender of the holy Catholic Faith handed down from the Apostles. If he falters, give us the grace to remain firm. If he suffers, grant us the courage to suffer with him. And if he walks in fidelity, may we support him with prayer, sacrifice, and love. Preserve us, O Lord, from both despair and delusion. Keep us alert, rooted in Scripture and Tradition, yet full of trust in Thy providence. Teach us to hope not in men, but in Thee – for Thou, O Christ, reigneth even in Thy Passion. And Thou wilt never forsake Thy Church. May Mary, Thy Mother and ours, intercede for Pope Leo XIV, that he may be a true shepherd after Thy Heart. May all Thy saints defend him from error and guide him in holiness. In Thee alone, O Christ, is our peace. To Thee alone do we look, In this hour and in every age. Amen.

A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR
FR. KEVIN DREW

Why do we repeatedly hear the phrase
“Through Christ Our Lord” at Holy Mass?
St Clement, the third pope after St Peter, sheds light in his letter to the Corinthians ...

Beloved, Jesus Christ is our salvation, He is the high priest through whom we present our offerings and the helper who supports us in our weakness. Through Him our gaze penetrates the heights of heaven and we see as in a mirror, the most holy face of God. Through Christ the eyes of our hearts are opened, and our weak and clouded understanding reaches up toward the light. Through Him the Lord God willed that we should taste eternal knowledge, for Christ is the radiance of God’s glory, and as much greater than the angels as the name God has given Him is superior to theirs.

So then, my brothers, let us do battle with all our might under his unerring command. Think of the men serving under our military commanders. How well disciplined they are! How readily and submissively they carry out orders! Not everyone can be a prefect, a tribune, a centurion, or a captain of fifty, but each man in his own rank executes the orders of the emperor and the officers in command.

The great cannot exist without those of humble condition, nor can those of humble condition exist without the great. Always it is the harmonious working together of its various parts that insures the well-being of the whole. Take our own body as an example: The head is helpless without the feet; and the feet can do nothing without the heart. Even our least important members are useful and necessary to the whole body, and all work together for its well-being in harmonious subordination.

Let us, then, preserve the unity of the body that we form in Christ Jesus, and let everyone give his neighbor the deference to which his particular gifts entitle him. Let the strong care for the weak and the weak respect the strong. Let the wealthy assist the poor and the poor man thank God for giving him someone to supply his needs. The wise man should show his wisdom not by his eloquence but by good works;
the humble man should not proclaim his own humility, but leave others to do so; nor must the man who preserves his chastity ever boast of it, but recognize that the ability to control his desires has been given him by another.

Think, my brothers, of how we first came into being, of what we were at the first moment of our existence. Think of the dark tomb out of which our Creator brought us into His world where He had His gifts prepared for us even before we were born. All this we owe to Him and for everything we must give Him thanks. To Him be glory for ever and ever. Amen..

CATHOLIC MONTH OF MAY
THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Hail Holy Queen (Salve Regina)

Hail, holy Queen, Mother of mercy, our life, our sweetness and our hope. To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve.
To thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears. Turn, then, most gracious advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us, and after this, our exile, show unto us
the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus.
O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.

V. Pray for us, O holy Mother of God.

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, Who by the working of the Holy Spirit didst prepare both body and soul of the glorious Virgin Mother, Mary, that she might deserve to be made a worthy dwelling for Thy Son, grant that we who rejoice in her memory, may, by her loving intercession, be delivered from present evils and from lasting death, through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

VIRTUE: MEEKNESS

BLESSED ARE THE MEEK, FOR THEY SHALL POSSESS THE EARTH.----MATT. 5:4

RESIST YOUR IMPATIENCE FAITHFULLY, PRACTICING, NOT ONLY WITH REASON, BUT EVEN AGAINST REASON, HOLY COURTESY AND SWEETNESS TO ALL, BUT ESPECIALLY TO THOSE WHO WEARY YOU MOST.----ST. FRANCIS DE SALES

Bishop Johnston’s Prayer intentions for the month of May.

For all Veterans who carry wounds - physical, emotional, or spiritual - that they experience deep healing and renewed peace of soul.

The Holy Father’s Prayer intentions for the month of May.

Let us pray that through work, each person might find fulfillment, families might be sustained in dignity, and that society might be humanized.

Prayers for Our Parish Family

We pray for our elderly, infirm, and home-bound:

O God, your Son accepted sufferings to teach us the virtue of patience in human illness. Hear the prayers we offer for our sick brothers and sisters. May all who suffer pain, illness or disease realize that they are chosen to be saints, and know that they are joined to Christ in his suffering for the salvation of the world, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.
