Faith Comes by Hearing
ROMANS 10:17
TRANSLATIONS FOR MASS
SUNDAY, JUNE 15TH

Introit – Rom 5: 5; Ps 102: 1

The love of God has been poured into our hearts, alleluia; by His Spirit which dwells in us, alleluia, alleluia. Vs. Bless the Lord, O my soul; and all that is within me, bless His holy name.

Communion – Tob 12: 6 V. Tob 13: 1, 3, 5, 6, 8, 9, 10

We bless the God of heaven, and before all living we will praise him; because he has shown his mercy to us.

1. Blessed be God who lives forever, because his kingdom lasts for all ages. 2. Praise him, you Israelites, before the Gentiles, though he has scattered you among them. 3. He scourged you for your iniquities, but will again have mercy on you all. 4. He will gather you from all the Gentiles among whom you have been scattered. 5. When you turn back to him with all your heart, to do what is right before him. 6.
Then he will turn back to you, and no longer hide his face from you. 7. So now consider what he has done for you, and praise him with full voice. 8. Bless the Lord of righteousness, and exalt the King of the ages. 9. In the land of my exile I praise him, and show his power and majesty to a sinful nation. 10. Turn back, you sinners! do the right before him: perhaps he may look with favor upon you and show you mercy. 11. Bless the Lord, all you his chosen ones, and all who praise his majesty. Keep days of joy, and give glory to him.

A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR
FR. KEVIN DREW

Below are some insights from Fr Tad Pacholczyk, Ph.D, the Director of Education at the National Catholic Bioethics Center in Philadelphia on the family-destroying use of contraception. It is from his article, Explaining the conundrum with condoms ...

The “popular” wisdom these days insists that because we can’t stop our children from engaging in premarital sex, and because such sex can be dangerous and have bad effects, we should do everything we can to protect our youngsters by giving them condoms. Condoms, we are assured, help decrease pregnancies and decrease sexually transmitted diseases in a simple, straight forward way. If parents love their children, they will surely see to it that they have “protection.”

This argument, widely accepted in all strata of our society, relies on a seriously flawed understanding of what love really means. We need only consider a related example to see this flaw clearly. If our children decide that they are going to play hopscotch on the asphalt of a busy interstate highway, in the midst of high-speed traffic, would we be manifesting our love for them by giving them helmets to place over their heads for “protection,” or would real love involve pulling them off the roadway and insisting they learn abstinence from freeway hopscotch? Which of these actions genuinely manifests a parent’s love for their children? True love often demands a higher and a more committed path, in place of an easier or more permissive one.
Whether for ourselves or for our children, condoms, in the guise of a loving solution, involve us in a grave moral compromise, tempt us to yield to a damaging permissiveness, and invariably fail the demands of true love.

Indeed, true love is violated right at its core in marriage any time we choose to use condoms, even for “good reasons.” By making such a choice, we end up saying to our spouse, “I love you, except for your fertility and fruitfulness. I will not embrace that part of you. I will put it aside, and use my sexuality and the rest of you in a way that addresses my own need for satisfactions.” But marital sexual intercourse is a special personal language that always means surrendering ourselves totally. On the other hand, couples close off a part of themselves to the other and deny access to the deepest and most life-giving center of who they are whenever they engage in contraceptive sex. Contraception is thus a kind of lie that a man and a woman speak to each other through their bodies, feigning the total gift of themselves to each other, but always actually holding back that gift.

Respecting the God-given designs for our sexuality and struggling towards sexual self-mastery is one of the great challenges of our age, and probably of every age. Arguments in favor of widespread condom availability are emblematic of a collective loss of nerve in the face of powerful libertine pressures within our culture. God opens up a higher and more authentic path to us every time His grace and mercy empower us to love each other as we genuinely ought to.

CATHOLIC MONTH OF JUNE

THE SACRED HEART

Novena to the Sacred Heart of Jesus

I. O my Jesus, you have said: 'Truly I say to you, ask and you will receive, seek and you will find, knock and it will be opened to you. ' Behold I knock, I seek and ask for the grace of (here name your request) Our Father... Hail Mary... Glory Be... .

Sacred Heart of Jesus, I place all my trust in you.

II. O my Jesus, you have said: "Truly I say to you, if you ask anything of the Father in my name, he will give it to you. ' Behold, in your name, I ask the Father for the grace of (here name your request) Our Father... Hail Mary...
Glory Be... .

Sacred Heart of Jesus, I place all my trust in you.

III. O my Jesus, you have said: "Truly I say to you, heaven and earth will pass away but my words will not pass away.” Encouraged by your infallible words I now ask for the grace of (here name your request) Our Father... . Hail Mary... . Glory Be to the Father...

Sacred Heart of Jesus, I place all my trust in you.

O Sacred Heart of Jesus, for whom it is impossible not to have compassion on the afflicted, have pity on us miserable sinners and grant us the grace which we ask of you, through the Sorrowful and Immaculate Heart of Mary, your tender Mother and ours.

Say the Hail, Holy Queen and add:

St. Joseph, foster father of Jesus, pray for us.

-- St. Margaret Mary Alacoque

Padre Pio recited this novena every day for all those who requested his prayers.

Let us pray that each one of us might find consolation in a personal relationship with Jesus, and from his Heart, learn to have compassion on the world.

Prayers for Our Parish Family

We pray for our elderly, infirm, and home-bound:

O God, your Son accepted sufferings to teach us the virtue of patience in human illness.
Hear the prayers we offer for our sick brothers and sisters. May all who suffer pain, illness or disease realize that they are chosen to be saints, and know that they are joined to Christ in his suffering for the salvation of the world, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.
