PSR

Commandment of the Month for September

The 1st Commandment

"I am the Lord your God: you shall not have strange gods before me."

The 1st Commandment establishes God as the One and Only God, Creator of the Universe, the One who brings us out of the slavery of sin, and into relationships of authentic happiness and everlasting freedom. With such promise and hope, shouldn't we trust God and His recipe of the Ten Commandments above mere worldly wisdom?

To help you prepare for discussing this Commandment, go to IfULoveMe.org/ten-commandments.

PRAYERS FOR OUR PARISH FAMILY
We pray for our elderly, infirm, and homebound:
O God, your Son accepted sufferings to teach us the virtue of patience in human illness. Hear the prayers we offer for our sick brothers and sisters. May all who suffer pain, illness or disease realize that they are chosen to be saints, and know that they are joined to Christ in his suffering for the salvation of the world, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen

A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR
FR. KEVIN DREW

Some seasonal thoughts from the Rural Life Prayer Book, 1955.

WE CHOOSE THE COUNTRY

WE BELIEVE that:

Farming is a noble Christian occupation. The farm home is a most suitable place to rear a Christian family. The good earth is the greatest material gift of God to man.

WE KNOW that:

In this vocation we country people work closely with God in producing the essential elements of life. By making ourselves aware of the special graces and opportunities of this way of life, and by cooperating with them, we and our families can most readily give glory to God and grow in holiness and happiness. The earth returns greatest honor to God when through our care and labor, it brings forth an abundance for our family's needs and those of society, for this generation and for those to come.

WE PROCLAIM that:

We will strive always to appreciate and hold fast to the spiritual values of our vocation and to prevent the materialism of this age from blinding us to them. We will model our homes on that of Nazareth; by working, learning, playing, and especially praying together we will strengthen our faith in God and our mutual love and unity; we will fulfill our obligation to be good neighbors, faithful parishioners, loyal and active citizens. We will regard our land as God's land; as stewards of His bounty, we will conserve and improve it so that it will increasingly continue to give glory to Him.

WE PRAY that:

Through God's grace we may have wisdom and strength to grow constantly in the virtues necessary for holy rural living: Faith, Hope firmly founded in knowledge of God's wisdom and providence, Love, Patience with the slow deliberate cycle of seasons and years, Fortitude, Temperance, Compassion, Mercy, Zeal.

A COUNTRYMAN GIVES THANKS

O GOD, source and giver of all things, who manifests Your infinite majesty, power and goodness in the earth about us, we give You honor and glory. For the sun and rain, for the manifold fruits of our fields, for the increase of our herds and flocks, we thank You. For the enrichment of our souls with divine grace, we are grateful.

Supreme Lord of the harvest, graciously accept us and the fruits of our toil, in union with Christ Your Son, as atonement for our sins, for the growth of Your Church, for peace and charity in our homes, for salvation to all. Amen.

CATHOLIC MONTH OF SEPTEMBER

SEVEN SORROWS OF MARY

Mary, full of sorrows, remember the anguish you felt in your heart during the suffering and death of your Son, Jesus Christ. Intercede for us and obtain for us the grace to endure our trials with faith and courage.
Amen

1. The Prophecy of Simeon (Luke 2:25-35): Simeon's prophecy foretold the suffering Mary would endure, predicting that a sword would pierce her heart as she witnessed the future trials of her son, Jesus.

2. The Flight of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph into Egypt (Matthew 2:13-15): The Holy Family's escape to Egypt to save Jesus from King Herod's massacre was a time of fear and hardship, reflecting Mary's anguish in protecting her child from danger.

3. The Loss of Jesus in the Temple (Luke 2:41-52): Losing Jesus for three days in Jerusalem brought immense sorrow and anxiety to Mary and Joseph as they searched for their beloved son, only to find him in the temple.

4. Mary Meets Jesus on the Way of the Cross (Luke 23:26-32): Encountering Jesus as He carried His cross to Calvary, Mary felt the weight of His suffering, sharing in His agony and pain.

5. Jesus Dies on the Cross (John 19:17-30): Witnessing the crucifixion, Mary stood by Jesus' side as He took His final breath, her heart breaking with each moment of His torment.

6. Mary Receives the Dead Body of Jesus (Luke 23:50-56): Holding her lifeless son in her arms, Mary experienced profound grief, yet remained steadfast in her faith.

7. Jesus is Placed in the Tomb (John 19:38-42): The sorrow of laying Jesus in the tomb marked the culmination of Mary's suffering, as she said goodbye to the physical presence of her son.

VIRTUE: PRAYER

OPORTET SEMPER ORAS ET NON DEFICERE---WE MUST ALWAYS PRAY, AND NOT FAINT.---
LUKE 18:1

SOULS THAT HAVE NO HABIT OF PRAYER ARE LIKE A LAME AND PARALYTIC BODY, WHICH, THOUGH IT HAS HANDS AND FEET, CANNOT USE THEM. THEREFORE, TO ABANDON PRAYER SEEMS TO ME THE SAME THING AS TO LOSE THE STRAIGHT ROAD; FOR AS PRAYER IS THE GATE THROUGH WHICH ALL THE GRACES OF GOD COME TO US, WHEN THIS IS CLOSED, I DO NOT KNOW HOW WE CAN HAVE ANY.---ST. TERESA

Bishop Johnston's Prayer intentions for the month of September

Please join me in praying for the desperate people of Gaza, for an end to the conflict there and the gift of a lasting and just peace.

The Holy Father's Prayer intentions for the month of September

Let us pray that, inspired by Saint Francis, we might experience our interdependence with all creatures who are loved by God and worthy of love and respect.
