BRIGHT FUTURES FUND

Let tax dollars you have to pay anyway help a child access Catholic education. The state of Missouri allows any person or business to direct up to half of annual tax liability to education. Tax dollars you will pay the state anyway can fund diocesan Catholic school scholarships. It's easy:

- Check your W-2 for what you owed the state last year.
- Estimate what you will owe this year and reserve and purchase your tax credits now.
- When you file your taxes, you get 100% credit for the amount you reserved and paid (up to 50% of your liability).
- You have up to four more years to use the tax credits if needed.

Call (816) 714-2338 to discover how your personal and/or business state income taxes can provide a brighter future for a child.

Commandment of the Month for October

The 2nd Commandment

"You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain"

Blasphemy and perjury are two serious ways the Second Commandment is broken. Blasphemy is referring to God in a curse or using His name carelessly or unnecessarily as in "Oh my G" as a meaningless expression. Perjury is when we call upon God to make a serious oath, such as in court, and then we break the oath. We also perjure God's name when we swear God's name in frivolous matters such as, "I swear to G that I will be on time."

A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR
FR. KEVIN DREW

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY -
MESSAGE FROM BISHOP JOHNSTON

Today we celebrate World Mission Sunday, a powerful reminder of our shared responsibility to proclaim the Gospel to all nations. It is a day when Catholics around the world unite in prayer and solidarity to support the missionary work of the Church. This year's theme, "Missionaries of Hope Among the Peoples", is particularly moving because, even though it was chosen by Pope Francis, it reflects both the heart of our faith and the vision of our new Holy Father, Pope Leo XIV.

Pope Leo XIV, who spent most of his priestly ministry as a missionary in the remote regions of Peru, reminds us that The Pontifical Mission Societies are "the primary means for awakening missionary responsibility among all the baptized {and for} supporting ecclesial communities in areas where the Church is young." His personal witness deepens the meaning of this year's celebration, inviting us all to renew our commitment to the Church's mission in the world.

It is fitting, as we reflect on our role in supporting the missions, to remember that the Catholic Church in the United States was itself once a mission territory. Just over a century ago, the faith here was still taking root, supported by the generosity of Catholics from Europe and beyond, who provided financial assistance, sent priests and religious, and built the parishes and schools that formed the foundation of the Church in this country. Without that missionary support, many of the dioceses we know today would have struggled even more to grow. In those early years, American Catholics benefited from the same collection we are today invited to support, overseen by the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, one of four Pontifical Mission Societies.

Now, it is our turn to extend that same generosity to others. We are called to support the missionaries, priests, religious sisters and brothers, and lay leaders who serve in the 1,124 mission territories where the Church is still young, vibrant, and often facing persecution or poverty. These areas, spanning Asia, Africa, Latin America, Oceania, and the Middle East, depend on our prayers and financial support to sustain and expand their efforts to share Christ and his saving words and work.

The second collection today supports the work of The Pontifical Mission Societies, the Pope's official means of assisting Catholic communities in the world's poorest and most remote regions. Our contributions provide essential resources for the Church's mission: the formation of seminarians and religious sisters, ensuring that future priests and religious leaders are prepared to serve; the training of lay catechists, who bring the faith to communities that may not have regular access to a priest; education for children in Catholic schools, giving them not only knowledge but also a foundation of faith; medical care in Church-run hospitals and clinics, offering healing and hope where healthcare is scarce; and the construction and maintenance of churches and parish centers, creating sacred spaces where the faithful can gather, worship, and grow in their relationship with Jesus.

Your prayers and sacrifices today ensure that the light of Christ reaches the ends of the earth. The Church's mission is not the responsibility only of those who serve in distant lands; it belongs to all of us by baptism. Each time we support the missions, we affirm that we are one Church, united in bringing hope and love to all people.

I encourage you to respond with a generous heart, knowing that your support makes a real difference in the lives of those who might otherwise never hear the Gospel. May this World Mission Sunday deepen our commitment to the missionary dimension of our faith. Let us go forth as Missionaries of Hope, bringing God's love and mercy to ALL people.

In Hope, united in Christ's mission,
Most Reverend James V Johnston, Jr
Bishop of Kansas City-St. Joseph

CATHOLIC MONTH OF OCTOBER

HOLY ROSARY

Since the prayers of the Rosary come from such excellent sources – from Our Lord Himself, from inspired Scripture, and from the Church – it is not surprising that the Rosary is so dear to our Blessed Mother and so powerful with heaven.

The month of October is dedicated to the Holy Rosary. According to an account by fifteenth-century Dominican, Alan de la Roch, Mary appeared to St. Dominic in 1206 after he had been praying and doing severe penances because of his lack of success in combating the Albigensian heresy. Mary praised him for his valiant fight against the heretics and then gave him the Rosary as a mighty weapon, explained its uses and efficacy, and told him to preach it to others.

VIRTUE: CONFIDENCE

ECCE EGO VOBISCUM SUM---BEHOLD I AM WITH YOU.---MATT. 28:20

DO YOU DESIRE SECURITY? HERE YOU HAVE IT. THE LORD SAYS TO THEE, "I WILL NEVER ABANDON THEE, I WILL ALWAYS BE WITH THEE!" IF A GOOD MAN MADE YOU SUCH A PROMISE, YOU WOULD TRUST HIM. GOD MAKES IT, AND DO YOU DOUBT? DO YOU SEEK A SUPPORT MORE SURE THAN THE WORD OF GOD, WHICH IS INFALLIBLE? SURELY, HE HAS MADE THE PROMISE, HE HAS WRITTEN IT, HE HAS PLEDGED HIS WORD FOR IT, IT IS MOST CERTAIN.---ST. AUGUSTINE

Bishop Johnston's Prayer intentions for the month of OCTOBER

The Holy Father's Prayer intentions for the month of OCTOBER

Let us pray that believers in different religious traditions might work together to defend and promote peace, justice, and human fraternity.
