A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR, FR. DREW

ST. MARTIN OF TOURS, NOVEMBER 11TH

Why are priests in the Armed Forces called "chaplains"? Studying the life of St Martin of Tours gives us our answer.

Martin, born in 316 A.D. of pagan parents was named after Mars, the Roman god of war. As a young child he was drawn to Christianity and took instruction in secret. Desiring to become a monk, but before he could be baptized, Martin was forced to join the army at age fifteen. Nevertheless, he was a good soldier and became an officer, stationed in Gaul, which is modern day France.

There is a town in the north of France called Amiens. If you look it up you will come upon some beautiful images, especially of the massive cathedral, built in the 13th century (when they really knew how to build churches.) The Battle of Amiens in 1918 was the turning point of World War I. It was in Amiens that the bloody stalemate of trench warfare was broken. You see, something new was introduced in that battle – tanks. Human flesh was no match for the machine gun, but armored vehicles were. One hundred days after the Battle of Amiens the armistice ending the war was signed. The date was November 11th (today) 1918.

Something new was also introduced in Amiens about 1600 years earlier; something few people had ever seen or considered – Christian charity. It was on this garrison duty at Amiens that the event took place that has been portrayed in art throughout the ages. On a bitterly cold winter day, the young tribune Martin rode through the gates, probably dressed in the regalia of his unit – gleaming flexible armor, ridged helmet, and a beautiful white cloak whose upper section was lined with lambswool. As he approached the gates he saw a beggar, with clothes so ragged that he was practically naked.

The beggar must have been shaking and blue from the cold but no one reached out to help him. Martin, overcome with compassion, took off his mantle. In one quick stroke, he slashed the lovely mantle in two with his sword, handed half to the freezing man and wrapped the remainder on his own shoulders. Many in the crowd thought this was so ridiculous a sight that they laughed and jeered but some realized that they were seeing Christian goodness.

That night Martin dreamed that he saw Jesus wearing the half mantle he had given the beggar. Jesus said to the angels and saints that surrounded him, "See! This is the mantle that Martin, yet a catechumen, gave me." When he woke, it was the "yet a catechumen" that spurred Martin to get immediately baptized. He was eighteen years old. (Saints and Angels).

After his discharge from the army Martin, by the will of the people, became the bishop of Tours in west-central France. After his death in 398 he became the first person to be made a saint that was not martyred. St. Martin of Tours is the patron saint of soldiers.

The cape that he had cut in half was put in an ornate box and this sacred cloak was carried into battlefields by priests who would say Mass for the soldiers. These priests became known as the cape-bearers, the capellani in Latin, which evolved into the French word chapeleyn, or what we say today in English, chaplain.

CATHOLIC MONTH OF NOVEMBER

NOVEMBER DEVOTION

THE HOLY SOULS

Let Your ears be attentive to my voice in supplication: If You, O Lord, mark iniquities, Lord, who can stand? But with You is forgiveness, that You may be revered. I trust in the Lord; my soul trusts in His word. My soul waits for the Lord more than sentinels wait for the dawn. More than sentinels wait for the dawn, let Israel wait for the Lord, For with the Lord is kindness and with Him is plenteous redemption; And He will redeem Israel from all their iniquities. Psalm 130

PRAYER FOR THE HOLY SOULS

O Lord, who art ever merciful and bounteous with Thy gifts, look down upon the suffering souls in purgatory. Remember not their offenses and negligence, but be mindful of Thy loving mercy, which is from all eternity. Cleanse them of their sins and fulfill their ardent desires that they may be made worthy to behold Thee face to face in Thy glory. May they soon be united with Thee and hear those blessed words which will call them to their heavenly home:

"Come, blessed of My Father, take possession of the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world."

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord; And let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace.

Amen.

VIRTUE: CHARITY

ECCE EGO VOBISCU M SUM---BEHOLD I AM WITH YOU.---MATT. 28:20

"SOME TORMENT THEMSELVES IN SEEKING MEANS TO DISCOVER THE ART OF LOVING GOD, AND DO NOT KNOW---POOR CREATURES---THAT THERE IS NO ART OR MEANS OF LOVING HIM BUT TO LOVE HIM---THAT IS, TO BEGIN TO PRACTICE THOSE THINGS WHICH ARE PLEASING TO HIM." ---ST. FRANCIS DE SALES

COMMANDMENT OF THE MONTH FOR NOVEMBER

THE 3RD COMMANDMENT

"REMEMBER TO KEEP HOLY THE LORD'S DAY."

To show us how generous He is, God created an extra day each week, the Lord's Day, to relax and enjoy the abundant blessings He has provided us. But what if God didn't create the extra day and just ended the creation story after six days, launching you straight from Saturday into Monday? How fun would that be? But, in His love He wanted to give us even more. A Divine Day of Vacation every week.

Do you take advantage of the Lord's Day as God intended? Or, does your Sunday get filled with chores, taking the kids to various activities, yard work and getting ready for a Monday morning meeting? Don't forfeit your Divine Day of Vacation. Let life slow down. Set aside the worries and busyness of life, turn off the TV, put Jesus front and center. Read a book, take a nap, play board games with the children, call a friend you haven't talked to in a while, go for a picnic and play at the park, invite a lonely neighbor for a glass of tea.

Then, when Monday comes, you will be refreshed and prepared to pick up where you left off. Sound good? If so, begin taking steps to free up your Sunday so you and your family can truly enjoy your Divine Day of Vacation on Sunday.
