ADOPT-A-PLOT MINISTRY

St. Ann parish is starting a new ministry called "Adopt-a-Plot" ministry. This is a great ministry for an individual or a whole household. Your tender loving care is given for a year to an area of our grounds that you select. A map and sign up sheet are on the table. Choose your area on the map and sign your name on that numbered line on the sign up sheet. The sign up sheet gives a brief explanation of what will need to be done to the area. The grounds committee will be in touch with you. Thank you for your help in keeping our grounds beautiful. Questions? Sherry Kutz (217) 260-7338

If you have reasonable cause to suspect sexual abuse of a minor or vulnerable adult, you must call: The Missouri Child Abuse Hotline at 1.800.392.3738, if the victim is under the age of 18. Dear Friends in Christ,

Our Lord today enjoins us to let our “yes mean yes and our no mean no.” In what was formerly Sexagesmia Sunday or sixty symbolic days before Lent, we can meditate on what today’s Gospel from Matthew means with the original theme that comes from the former preparation for Lent. In the ancient Gospel for this Sunday, we heard the parable of the sower; how the sower goes out to sow and sprinkles seed on various weather and ground conditions only to have the one that is well-rooted take shape and bear fruit. When we make a profession of Faith, does our yes to salvation mean yes and our no to evil, no? A lot of the fruitfulness that can come about from Lenten practice means that we must till the soil of our hearts right now. We must prepare for what is coming. If we are lukewarm in our decisions to follow Christ, we cannot expect some miracle to take place. By habituating ourselves right now in virtue, by examining our consciences now and asking ourselves where our “yes” has been maybe or our “no” to sin a compromise with a “yes,” we can see where God is calling us to grow, where He is calling us to put aside our former ways and where He is calling us to restoration where we are wounded. As we have one and a half weeks before Ash Wednesday, we reflect in the here and now, not later, in how Jesus Christ is asking us to conform ourselves to Him with a resounding and complete “yes” of the heart and mind.

CATHOLIC MONTH OF FEBRUARY

VIRTUE: HUMILITY

Whoever humbleth himself, shall be exalted. -Lk. 14:11

One day of humble self-knowledge is a greater grace from the Lord, although it may have cost us many afflictions and trials, than many days of prayer.

-ST. TERESA

MONTH OF THE HOLY FAMILY

O blessed parents of the Infant Jesus, Mary and Joseph, if we came to solicit thee to obtain for us worldly prosperity, honors and comforts, our petitions could never reach a God Whose cradle is a manger; a God, poor, meek, suffering, and humbled even to annihilation. But these are not our desires or petitions. No; we humbly and earnestly implore thee to beg for us, at the crib of thine Infant Son, that like Him, and as His true and faithful followers, we may live in true humility, disengagement from creatures, contempt of the world and its vanities, constant recollection, fervor and fidelity in all our duties, and in the practice of the tenderest charity to our fellow creatures. May we ever rejoice in our calling to the true faith, which binds us to be imitators of our humble Savior. May we ever look with compassionate eyes on those who live but for this world, and continually pray that all may come to bless, to praise, and to love the Savior Who comes to redeem them. Amen.
