ADOPT-A-PLOT MINISTRY

St. Ann parish is starting a new ministry called "Adopt-a-Plot" ministry. This is a great ministry for an individual or a whole household. Your tender loving care is given for a year to an area of our grounds that you select. A map and sign up sheet are on the table. Choose your area on the map and sign your name on that numbered line on the sign up sheet. The sign up sheet gives a brief explanation of what will need to be done to the area. The grounds committee will be in touch with you. Thank you for your help in keeping our grounds beautiful. Questions? Sherry Kutz (217) 260-7338

If you have reasonable cause to suspect sexual abuse of a minor or vulnerable adult, you must call: The Missouri Child Abuse Hotline at 1.800.392.3738, if the victim is under the age of 18. Dear Friends in Christ,
This Wednesday begins the solemn season of our annual Lenten observance in which we accompany the Lord Jesus through the desert and confront what is evil in us so that we may be renewed with the grace of the resurrection. Since the Middle Ages, we have split up the season in various ways in order that we might delve more deeply into the mystery. The first few days of Lent were a later addition so that the total (minus Sundays) would add up to a complete forty days of penance. Symbolically, the first four weeks also account for the forty days while the last two weeks of Lent (the Fifth Week and Holy Week) accounted for Passiontide where we have an increased attention to the Passion of the Lord.

As we set out to journey with the Lord, Lent is a journey of spiritual renewal; it is a denial of bodily pleasure, bodily goods that we may be “re-ordered” to be like the Risen Christ. Because of our concupiscence or our tendency to sin as well as our sins themselves, it is necessary that we take on ascetical habits in an increased way in order to re-order our actions to what is in accord with right reason as expressed in not only the Ten Commandments, but the teachings of Christ. Self-denial and purposeful and deliberate restraint of our desires curtails the impulse to act as our emotional life tells us to act. To the contrary, these penances are supposed to order us to once again think and act according to eternal truths. We are both body and soul; for this reason, we cannot merely have a “good intention,” but must actually do something different. Habitual action shapes our thinking. Our thinking or belief about someone or something should translate into what we do.

As we approach this sacred season, please check the Lenten schedule in the bulletin for Mass time changes (Ash Wednesday) as well as for our events.
May God bless and Keep You!
Fr. Schneider

Please make your checks payable to the Visitation Sodality and in the memo write flowers. CATHOLIC MONTH OF FEBRUARY

VIRTUE: HUMILITY

Whoever humbleth himself, shall be exalted. -Lk. 14:11

One who wishes to become truly holy ought not, except in a few unusual cases, to excuse himself, although that for which he is blamed be not true. Jesus Christ acted thus. He heard Himself charged with evil which He had not done, but said not a word to free Himself from the disgrace.

-ST. PHILIP NERI

MONTH OF THE HOLY FAMILY

O blessed parents of the Infant Jesus, Mary and Joseph, if we came to solicit thee to obtain for us worldly prosperity, honors and comforts, our petitions could never reach a God Whose cradle is a manger; a God, poor, meek, suffering, and humbled even to annihilation. But these are not our desires or petitions. No; we humbly and earnestly implore thee to beg for us, at the crib of thine Infant Son, that like Him, and as His true and faithful followers, we may live in true humility, disengagement from creatures, contempt of the world and its vanities, constant recollection, fervor and fidelity in all our duties, and in the practice of the tenderest charity to our fellow creatures. May we ever rejoice in our calling to the true faith, which binds us to be imitators of our humble Savior. May we ever look with compassionate eyes on those who live but for this world, and continually pray that all may come to bless, to praise, and to love the Savior Who comes to redeem them. Amen.
