Dear Friends in Christ,

This Low Sunday, also called Divine Mercy Sunday, we encounter the Risen Lord in all of His Glory once again. This time, through the Apostle Thomas, we have our own faith in resurrection tested. St. Thomas insisting on touching the Lord and when you think about it, Thomas actually ended up touching the Lord’s Sacred and Risen Heart.

We recall the Lord’s Divine Mercy today and how it is infinite and comes forth from this same Heart with streams of Blood and Water. When we approach the sacrament of penance, it is indeed a new baptism. These same streams of Blood and Water gush forth from the Heart of the Savior as a fount of Mercy for us.

This Sunday at 10:00am Mass, we congratulate three of our young people for making their First Holy Communion. Many blessings to your families on this glorious day of receiving the Lord for the first time. Thank you to their parents and teachers for assisting them in their journey of Faith. Please join us in the parish hall after Mass for a reception in honor of our first communicants.

As a reminder, 10am Mass this weekend is the last Mass in the church building until the end of the summer. All Masses and sacraments will be in the parish hall which will act as our church building. If you have signed up on either of the lists to help—thank you! Today (Sunday) we will be assembling at 4pm to set up our make-shift church in the hall. This is a very exciting and blessed time for our parish family. Thank you for being a part of it!

CATHOLIC MONTH OF APRIL

VIRTUE: PATIENCE

Whoever taketh not up his cross and followeth Me, is not worthy of Me.
-MATTHEW 10:38

One ounce of the Cross is worth more than a million pounds of prayer. One day of crucifixion is worth more than a hundred years of all other exercises. It is worth more to remain a moment upon the Cross, than to taste the delights of Paradise.

-VEN. SISTER MARIA VITTORIA ANGELINI

MONTH OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT
Hymn of St. Thomas Aquinas
Our Lord in the Tabernacle

HUMBLY I adore Thee, hidden Deity,
Which beneath these figures art concealed from me;
Wholly in submission Thee my spirit hails,
For in contemplating Thee it wholly fails.
Taste and touch and vision in Thee are deceived:
But the hearing only may be well believed:
I believe whatever God’s own Son declared:
Nothing can be truer than Truth’s very Word.
On the Cross lay hidden but Thy Deity:
Here is also hidden Thy Humanity:
But in both believing and confessing, Lord,
Ask I what the dying thief of Thee implored.
Though Thy Wounds, like Thomas, I behold not now,
Thee my Lord confessing, and my God, I bow:
Let my spirit ever eat of Thee and live,
And the blest fruition of Thy sweetness give!
O most sweet memorial of His death and woe,
Living Bread, which givest life to man below,
Let my spirit every eat of Thee and live,
And the blest fruition of Thy sweetness give!
Pelican of mercy, Jesus, Lord and God,
Cleanse me, wretched sinner, in Thy Precious Blood:
Blood, whereof one drop for humankind outpoured
Might from all transgression have the world restored.
Jesus, Thou, Whom thus veil’d, I must see below,
When shall that be given which I long for so,
That at last beholding Thy uncover’d Face,
Thou wouldst satisfy me with Thy fullest grace.
Amen.
