LEGION OF MARY

The Legion of Mary is a world wide lay apostolic association of Catholics dedicated to praying and working for Mary for the salvation of souls. The parish needs people willing to give a little of their time to Mary. Not a better person to pray and work for, but Mary, and not a better reason to pray and work than for the salvation of souls.

All are welcome to join in this apostolate.

Meetings are Friday mornings after Mass in the hall.
Contact Tom and Sherry Kutz (217) 260-7338.

If you have reasonable cause to suspect sexual abuse of a minor or vulnerable adult, you must call: The Missouri Child Abuse Hotline at 1.800.392.3738, if the victim is under the age of 18. The Missouri Adult Abuse and Neglect Hotline at 1.800.392.0210, if the victim is a vulnerable adult. Local law enforcement or 911 if you believe the person is in immediate danger. Dear Friends in Christ,

I’ve had people ask me before, “Are deacons new in the Church?” Many are surprised to learn that all priests are ordained deacons before being ordained priests. There are also no such thing as “lay deacons.” When people say this, what they are referring to is the permanent diaconate who, in the United States, usually consists of married men. There are several categories of Tradition in the Catholic Church which are delineated by their origin. There is Dominical Tradition or Sacred Tradition that comes from the mouth of the Lord which is not written in the Scriptures. We also have Divino-Apostolic Tradition which is established by the Apostles in the time of Public Revelation from God which ended at the death of the Last Apostle, St. John. This Tradition is inspired by the Holy Spirit, the Third Person of the Blessed Trinity. We witness this today in the Acts of the Apostles at the ordination of the first deacons. By the laying on of hands and the invocation of the Holy Spirit, these men are given a sacred character and the lowest rank of Holy Orders which conforms them to Christ the Servant. The order of deacon is to serve at the altar and assist the priest with preparing the gifts for the sacrificial offering of the Mass, and also to proclaim the Gospel and in a limited way, has a catechetical mandate. In the early Church and up through the middle ages, deacons who were always celibate or if married, continent, administered the temporal goods of the Church and cared for widows, orphans and the poor. St. Francis of Assisi was actually a deacon; he was never ordained to the priesthood. As we progress through May, Bishop Johnston will ordain one transitional deacon this year on Saturday, May 20th at the Cathedral of St. Joseph. Let us pray for his ministry as the Lord bestows upon him the gift of Holy Orders.

ALTAR FLOWERS AT ST. ANN

You can sponsor our altar flowers. It is $40 to sponsor a week in honor or memoriam of a loved one. Their name and yours will be listed in the bulletin. Please make your checks payable to the Visitation Sodality and in the memo write flowers. Your gift will be assigned the next available week, unless you have a specific week in mind and then please add this to your contribution envelope as well as your email/phone to get it scheduled. Thank you for your generosity!

CATHOLIC MONTH OF APRIL

VIRTUE: MEEKNESS

Blessed are the meek, for they shall possess the earth. -MATT. 5:4

To keep the soul continually in a state of gentle calm, it is necessary to perform every action as being done in the presence of God, and as if He Himself had ordained it.

-ST. VINCENT FERRER

MONTH OF THE MARY

Ave Maris Stella

Hail, bright star of ocean,
God’s own Mother blest,
Ever sinless Virgin,
Gate of heavenly rest.
Taking that sweet Ave
Which from Gabriel came,
Peace confirm within us,
Changing Eva’s name.
Break the captives’ fetters,
Light on blindness pour,
All our ills expelling,
Every bliss implore.
Show thyself a Mother;
May the Word Divine,
Born for us thy Infant,
Hear our prayers through thine.
Virgin all excelling,
Mildest of the mild,
Freed from guilt, preserve us,
Pure and undefiled.
Keep our life all spotless,
Make our way secure,
Till we find in Jesus,
Joy forevermore.
Through the highest heaven
To the Almighty Three,
Father, Son and Spirit,
One same glory be. Amen.
