Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Today, the disciples ask the Lord, “Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?” Pope Emeritus Benedict once quoted towards the end of his pontificate in reference to the Bark of Peter, the Church. He himself asked this question of the Lord during the most difficult moments. Even in our own lives, it can seem as if the waves lap against our own boat and begin to fill it. We can make this our own prayer, not relying upon our own power to stop the waves, but acknowledging the power of the Son of God to calm them. Though the disciples cried out in fear, Our Lord desired that they depend on His power and not their own. The sea of life too violent for our little boat. This is why we must invite Jesus into our boat who calms the wind and the storm with His Word.

Next weekend after the 10:00am Mass (June 30th), I will depart from St. Ann to go to St. Andrew. Before I go, we will have an opportunity after that Mass to say goodbye to one another in the parish hall. Please make it a point to stop by if you can for coffee, donuts and fellowship. I look forward to seeing you there!

CATHOLIC MONTH OF JUNE

Virtue: Obedience

All things whatsoever that they command you, observe and do. -Matt. 23:3

A little drop of simple obedience is worth a million times more than a whole vase full of the choicest contemplations.
—St. Mary Magdalen de’ Pazzi

June is the Month of the Sacred Heart of Jesus

O Sacred Heart of Jesus, to Thee I consecrate and offer up my person and my life, my actions, trials, and sufferings, that my entire being may henceforth only be employed in loving, honoring and glorifying Thee. This is my irrevocable will, to belong entirely to Thee, and to do all for Thy love, renouncing with my whole heart all that can displease Thee.

I take Thee, O Sacred Heart, for the sole object of my love, the protection of my life, the pledge of my salvation, the remedy of my frailty and inconstancy, the reparation for all the defects of my life, and my secure refuge at the hour of my death. Be Thou, O Most Merciful Heart, my justification before God Thy Father, and screen me from His anger which I have so justly merited. I fear all from my own weakness and malice, but placing my entire confidence in Thee, O Heart of Love, I hope all from Thine infinite Goodness. Annihilate in me all that can displease or resist Thee. Imprint Thy pure love so deeply in my heart that I may never forget Thee or be separated from Thee.

I beseech Thee, through Thine infinite Goodness, grant that my name be engraved upon Thy Heart, for in this I place all my happiness and all my glory, to live and to die as one of Thy devoted servants.Amen.

. — St. Margaret Mary Alacoque
