LEGION OF MARY

The Legion of Mary is a world wide lay apostolic association of Catholics dedicated to praying and working for Mary for the salvation of souls. The parish needs people willing to give a little of their time to Mary. Not a better person to pray and work for but Mary, and not a better reason to pray and work than for the salvation of souls.

Dear Friends in Christ,

Happy Fourth of July! In today’s Gospel, the Lord makes the definition of “loving God” very clear—we are to love nothing or no one above Him. This is much different from the Pagan relationship with the gods wherein one makes ritualistic measures to appease the capriciousness of the god. Even the gods in Greek mythology are much more human than they are divine. Divinity, one could say, is more or less the power to destroy in this milieu. The God of Israel is different. He is the One True God for all of the universe. And this God, our God, became man and walked among us. His name is Jesus or God-saves. God wills that we have a relationship with Him which implies, because He is a Divine Person, that we truly love Him above all created things. This, hard as it may sound, Jesus commands us to do. It is difficult to live up to this standard, but not impossible. We ask the Lord for grace and mercy knowing that we cannot do this on our own. May we “lose our lives” for the sake of Christ that we might find Eternal Life in the Blessed Trinity.

CATHOLIC MONTH OF JULY

VIRTUE: SIMPLICITY

Be simple as doves. -MATT. 10:16

The office of simplicity is to make us go straight to God, without regard to human respect or our own interests. It leads us to tell things candidly and just as they exist in our hearts. It leads us to act simply, without admixture of hypocrisy and artifice—and, finally, keeps us at a distance from every kind of deceit and double-dealing. -St. VINCENT DePAUL
