Greetings from Fr. Drew,
The Bread of Life Discourse. John 6
Friends, this Sunday we begin reading from the 6th chapter of John and we will continue to do so for several weeks. It contains the Bread of Life Discourse in which Christ repeatedly tells us we have to eat His flesh and drink His blood.
Below is an excerpt of instruction to new Christians from the bishop, St. Ambrose of Milan (d.397). Ambrose was no dummy. He was one of the most successful and powerful people in Italy when he became bishop. Note below how he logically explains the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist to his new converts. Many Protestants have come home to the one true faith after reading Ambrose and other Church Fathers ...
“Fresh from the waters and resplendent in these garments, God’s holy people hasten to the altar of Christ, saying: I will go in to the altar of God, to God who gives joy to my youth. They have sloughed off the old skin of error, their youth renewed like an eagle’s, and they make haste to approach that heavenly banquet ...
It is wonderful that God rained manna on our fathers and they were fed with daily food from heaven. And so it is written: Man ate the bread of angels. Yet those who ate that bread all died in the desert. But the food that you receive, that living bread which came down from heaven, supplies the very substance of eternal life, and whoever will eat it will never die, for it is the body of Christ.
Consider now which is the more excellent: the bread of angels or the flesh of Christ, which is indeed the body that gives life. The first was manna from heaven, the second is above the heavens. One was of heaven, the other is of the Lord of the heavens; one subject to corruption if it was kept till the morrow, the other free from all corruption, for if anyone tastes of it with reverence he will be incapable of corruption. For our fathers, water flowed from the rock; for you, blood flows from Christ. Water satisfied their thirst for a time; blood cleanses you forever. The Jew drinks and still thirsts, but when you drink you will be incapable of thirst. What happened in symbol is now fulfilled in reality.
If what you marvel at is a shadow, how great is the reality whose very shadow you marvel at. Listen to this, which shows that what happened in the time of our fathers was but a shadow. They drank, it is written, from the rock that followed them, and the rock was Christ. All this took place as a symbol for us. You know now what is more excellent: light is preferable to its shadow, reality to its symbol, the body of the Giver to the manna he gave from heaven.”
-Fr. Drew

Coffee and Donuts

Join us for fellowship in the hall after 10:30am mass on August 4th and August 18th. Free will offering for the Visitation Sodality. The store will be open as well.

CATHOLIC MONTH OF JULY

Virtue: Simplicity

Be simple as doves.---Matt. 10:16

God is a Being most simple in His essence, admitting no composition whatever. If, then, we desire to render ourselves as much like Him as possible, we should endeavor to be by virtue what He is by nature; that is, we ought to have a simple heart, a simple soul, a simple intention, a simple mode of action. We ought to speak simply, and to act frankly, without deceit or artifice, always letting our exterior reflect our interior, and never regarding anything in all our actions except God, Whom alone we endeavor and desire to please.-ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

July is the Catholic Month of the Precious Blood

And made us, for our God, a kingdom. Let us pray: Almighty and Eternal God, you have appointed your only-begotten Son the Redeemer of the world, and willed to be appeased by his Blood. Grant, we beg of you, that we may worthily adore this price of our salvation, and through its power be safeguarded from the evils of this present life, so that we may rejoice in its fruits forever in heaven. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
