Retreat for Married Couples Introduction to Domestic Church

Our parish will be hosting a 2-Day Retreat for married couples on the weekend of:

September 23-24, 2022

This retreat is first and foremost a chance to encounter Christ together as a married couple and to enrich your spiritual life together. It is also an introduction to the Domestic Church movement which provides ongoing support and formation for married couples. We already have one small group in our parish and expect to add another for monthly formation meetings after this retreat.

The cost for both Saturdays is $75 which covers the food (light breakfast, lunch and one dinner) and materials. Scholarships are available. The Retreat will be led by parishioners, Dino and Cathy Durando who will be available after Mass this Sunday to answer your questions about this opportunity. We are hosting an information night:

Thursday, September 1st, 7-8pm
in the parish hall

LEGION OF MARY

The Legion of Mary is a world wide lay apostolic association of Catholics dedicated to praying and working for Mary for the salvation of souls. The parish needs people willing to give a little of their time to Mary. Not a better person to pray and work for but Mary, and not a better reason to pray and work than for the salvation of souls.

- ✿ Meetings Friday Mornings after Mass in the Hall
- ✿ Questions call Sherry Kutz (217) 260-7338.

Dear Friends In Christ-

When Our Lord is asked about the amount of people that will be saved, I do believe that the modern question would be two-fold—saved from what and, if we were casual Christian believers, the question might seem pedantic or not worth answering because we assume that everyone goes to heaven. In our case of being Christian today, it is the latter and not the former response that plagues us. In this question, we see how we can lose the virtue of hope in two ways. We can lose the supernatural virtue of hope by despair or by presumption. Despair is when we think that we could never be saved. It is here where we forsake the power of God's mercy and believe ourselves to be our own judge. It is a sort of veiled pride. Pride in presumption that we automatically will gain heaven and need not worry about living a certain way is typically what gets us today. Notice how Jesus doesn't give a certain amount of people who will be saved. He doesn't quantify the answer; God rarely does. He qualifies it to keep the fire burning within us, the desire to live a moral life, the desire to take responsibility for our actions, to live the life of the Redeemer not only in what we say, but also in what we do. This is lost on the best of us today. In the progressive camp of Catholicism, revelation is treated as a personal possession where the needle of truth can be moved to accommodate our sinfulness. To treat Christ in this way is not to know Him at all. In the more traditional camp, word and action are divided. While we may believe, in other words, is that enough? Or is more required? After all, Jesus says, "I am the Way, the Truth and the Life." He doesn't only say, "I am the Truth." The way and the life means precisely living in the hope of gaining life! Knowing Christ is the first step in salvation. We cannot claim to love Him if we don't know Him. Faith is the first step. From faith buds forth charity—the living of the Way and living to hope in the Life. Is it enough to simply to know who Jesus is? Our Lord says that we must strive with our action. Let us strive together!

-Fr. Schneider

CATHOLIC MONTH OF AUGUST

VIRTUE: DILIGENCE

Never allow yourself to believe that time lost which is spent in performing your charge well. For this is a thing so acceptable to the Lord that He gives in a little time what He would otherwise be much longer in giving, and even doubles what has been abandoned in His service.

--ST. TERESA

OMARY, Virgin most powerful and Mother of mercy, Queen of Heaven and Refuge of sinners, we consecrate ourselves to thine Immaculate Heart. We consecrate to thee our very being and our whole life; all that we have, all that we love, all that we are. To thee we give our bodies, our hearts and our souls; to thee we give our homes, our families, our country. We desire that all that is in us and around us may belong to thee, and may share in the benefits of thy motherly benediction. And that this act of consecration may be truly efficacious and lasting, we renew this day at thy feet the promises of our Baptism and our first Holy Communion. We pledge ourselves to profess courageously and at all times the truths of our holy Faith, and to live as befits Catholics who are duly submissive to all the directions of the Pope and the Bishops in communion with him. We pledge ourselves to keep the commandments of God and His Church, in particular to keep holy the Lord's Day. We likewise pledge ourselves to make the consoling practices of the Christian religion, and above all, Holy Communion, an integral part of our lives, in so far as we shall be able so to do. Finally, we promise thee, O glorious Mother of God and loving Mother of men, to devote ourselves whole-heartedly to the service of thy blessed cult, in order to hasten and assure, through the sovereignty of thine Immaculate Heart, the coming of the kingdom of the Sacred Heart of thine adorable Son, in our own hearts and in those of all men, in our country and in all the world. As in heaven, so on earth. Amen.

ALTAR FLOWERS AT ST. ANN

You can now sponsor our altar flowers! It is $40 to sponsor a week in honor or memorial of a loved one. Their name and yours will be listed in the bulletin. Please make your checks payable to the Visitation Sodality and in the memo, write the name of the person you would like to honor. Your gift will be assigned the next available week, unless you have a specific week in mind and then email stannplattsburg@gmail.com to schedule it. Thank you in advance for your generosity!
