Retreat for Married Couples Introduction to Domestic Church

Our parish will be hosting a 2-Day Retreat for married couples on the weekend of:

September 23-24, 2022

This retreat is first and foremost a chance to encounter Christ together as a married couple and to enrich your spiritual life together. It is also an introduction to the Domestic Church movement which provides ongoing support and formation for married couples. We already have one small group in our parish and expect to add another for monthly formation meetings after this retreat.

The cost for both Saturdays is $75 which covers the food (light breakfast, lunch and one dinner) and materials. Scholarships are available. The Retreat will be led by parishioners, Dino and Cathy Durando who will be available after Mass this Sunday to answer your questions about this opportunity. We are hosting an information night:

Thursday, September 1st, 7-8pm
In the parish hall

LEGION OF MARY

The Legion of Mary is a world wide lay apostolic association of Catholics dedicated to praying and working for Mary for the salvation of souls. The parish needs people willing to give a little of their time to Mary. Not a better person to pray and work for but Mary, and not a better reason to pray and work than for the salvation of souls.

Dear Friends In Christ-

Quid pro quo. I do this for you, and in exchange, you do that. Jesus talks about the Christian spirit of magnanimity or enlargement of the soul. It is a virtue that is related to the concept of Christian joy. Quid pro quo thinking is when we expect something in return from our giving. In other words, it is conditioned giving. It is calculated. It is the kind that frankly many of us are used to.

Yet, when Jesus gives His command about this topic, that is precisely why He tells His listeners to invite people who cannot repay us. It is in this way that one's intention is perfected and honed not on what we receive in this life, but rather is properly ordered toward the supernatural virtue of charity. Charity has God as our final end. It is different than simply kindness or being nice. It is ordering our daily actions toward our final end for which we were made—union with the Blessed Trinity.

-Fr. Schneider

CATHOLIC MONTH OF AUGUST

VIRTUE: DILIGENCE

Among the hindrances which prevent us from performing our actions well, the foremost is that while we are doing one thing, we are thinking of another which we have to do or which we have done; so that our occupations interfere with one another, and none is well performed. The way to do them all well is to attend solely to the one we have in hand, taking care to do it as perfectly as possible, and banishing for the time the thought of every other; and when this is finished, not to think of it any more, but to think of what remains to be done.

—FATHER M. D' AVILA

DEVOTION: IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY

OMARY, Virgin most powerful and Mother of mercy, Queen of Heaven and Refuge of sinners, we consecrate ourselves to thine Immaculate Heart.

We consecrate to thee our very being and our whole life; all that we have, all that we love, all that we are. To thee we give our bodies, our hearts and our souls; to thee we give our homes, our families, our country. We desire that all that is in us and around us may belong to thee, and may share in the benefits of thy motherly benediction. And that this act of consecration may be truly efficacious and lasting, we renew this day at thy feet the promises of our Baptism and our first Holy Communion. We pledge ourselves to profess courageously and at all times the truths of our holy Faith, and to live as befits Catholics who are duly submissive to all the directions of the Pope and the Bishops in communion with him. We pledge ourselves to keep the commandments of God and His Church, in particular to keep holy the Lord's Day. We likewise pledge ourselves to make the consoling practices of the Christian religion, and above all, Holy Communion, an integral part of our lives, in so far as we shall be able so to do. Finally, we promise thee, O glorious Mother of God and loving Mother of men, to devote ourselves whole-heartedly to the service of thy blessed cult, in order to hasten and assure, through the sovereignty of thine Immaculate Heart, the coming of the kingdom of the Sacred Heart of thine adorable Son, in our own hearts and in those of all men, in our country and in all the world. As in heaven, so on earth. Amen.
