Seek the Truth on the Proposed Missouri Constitutional Amendment

August 13th, 6:30 PM Good Shepherd Catholic Church Smithville

A misleading proposed amendment to the Missouri Constitution suggests that a "right to an abortion" is needed to protect women. Come and learn more about abortion policy in Missouri with Deb Sheppard, Office of Life and Justice, Diocese of KC-SJ. Find out about the laws and regulations that will be changed or eliminated including the loss of parental rights. Sponsored by the Respect Life Committee. Questions, contact Linda Nelson, 816-550-1394.

Envelopes for flowers are in the back of the church and can be placed in the collection basket. Thank you!

Greetings from Fr. Drew, Saint John Vianney, the Cure D'Ars, August 4th
The bloody French Revolution that started in 1789 was the laboratory for the later horrors of the 20th century; the mass killings and genocide by the Nazis and the Communists in Russia and China. The French Revolution was the first time such oppression sprang from calculation more than passion, from a theory more than from absence of thought.

The heat of the Revolution's horror was its deliberate precision: wild mobs were directed by willful committees. Executions were not orgies of abandon; they were promoted as population reform. A machine was invented to do the job cleanly, and its inventor went to it himself. (Rutler, The Cure D'Ars Today)

When John Vianney, born in 1786, was a small child, his parish priest signed an oath to the new Civil Constitution That was an oath which mandated a priest's allegiance to the anti-Christian state over the Church. Vianney's parish priest still dressed like a priest and he said Mass. But it was all fake. He only mentioned God when the rubrics directed him. Soon enough his parish church emptied. But the Church goes on. For the Church is what is left when the building goes.

Faithful French would sneak priests loyal to the Church into their homes: When a priest in secular disguise came in the door, he went into a dark corner and emerged rid of his camouflage, splendid in wrinkled vestments at a broken board for his altar; there were those who wept at so great a sight, and among them the eyes of a boy of six were as wide as saucers.

The boy saw those priests, who risked their lives to say Mass for people as heroes. Young John Vianney was determined, if God willed it, to become a priest himself. But the Revolution, and later being drafted into Napoleon's army delayed the plans. Afterwards he humiliated himself by taking classes with young boys, who thought he was slow-witted.

Ordained a priest at age 29, Vianney was sent to the small out of the way village of Ars. Due to the atheistic influence of the Revolution the people in Ars had lost the faith. Vianney was determined to bring it back. He started railing against the abuse of the Sabbath and the lewd dancing in which the villagers engaged. So, the villagers took to hating him right away. They worked up various plans to have him removed, but thankfully for them their plans failed. Vianney, small and rail thin, emaciated due to severe fasting, slowly started converting hearts back to Christ.

Word got out about the Cure' D'Ars, the priest of Ars, who could read people's souls when they went to confession. Twenty thousand pilgrims a year started coming to Ars. Vianney would hear their confessions for 12-16 hours a day. Ars, which had lost the faith, had found it again.

We have had a revolution in our modern times and the faith has been all but lost. Priests and bishops in the highest of places appear to have abandoned Christ and His Church and given their allegiance to the state. In the meantime, churches have emptied. But a remnant of the faith remains. The gates of hell do not prevail. For the Church is what is left when the building goes.
-Fr. Drew

CATHOLIC MONTH OF AUGUST

Virtue: Diligence
He did all things well.---Mark 7:37

Be careful not to forget God in your occupations, from a belief that in this way you will accomplish more; for if He abandons you, you will not be able to take a step without falling prostrate on the ground. Rather imitate little children, who with one hand cling to their fathers, while with the other they pluck strawberries and mulberries along the hedges. Attend to what you are doing, yet not without raising a glance from time to time to your Heavenly Father, to see whether He is pleased with your plans and to ask His help. In this manner, you will accomplish even the most difficult business better and more easily. See how the Blessed Virgin quietly employed one hand in work, while she was holding upon the other arm Our Infant Lord.
-ST. FRANCIS DE SALES

August Devotion
Immaculate Heart of Mary

O Immaculata, Queen of Heaven and earth, refuge of sinners and our most loving Mother, God has willed to entrust the entire order of mercy to you. I, (name), a repentant sinner, cast myself at your feet humbly imploring you to take me with all that I am and have, wholly to yourself as your possession and property. Please make of me, of all my powers of soul and body, of my whole life, death and eternity, whatever most pleases you. If it pleases you, use all that I am and have without reserve, wholly to accomplish what was said of you: "She will crush your head," and, "You alone have destroyed all heresies in the whole world." Let me be a fit instrument in your immaculate and merciful hands for introducing and increasing your glory to the maximum in all the many strayed and indifferent souls, and thus help extend as far as possible the blessed kingdom of the most Sacred Heart of Jesus. For wherever you enter, you obtain the grace of conversion and growth in holiness, since it is through your hands that all graces come to us from the most Sacred Heart of Jesus.

V. Allow me to praise you, O Sacred Virgin. R. Give me strength against your enemies. Amen.
