Congratulations!

On behalf of our St. Ann's family, we extend congratulations to Brian W Boddicker and Josephine R Boddicker (James) who received the Sacrament of Holy Matrimony on Saturday, August 24th. Your wedding will be remembered as the beginning of many joyous moments in your life together, the moment two people's lives become one; where love between a man and a woman is joined, by the Holy Church, in Sacrament.

Almighty Father, we ask you to bless Brian and Josie with love, happiness and guidance during their married life. Bless their parents Matthew and Jami James, and Lucas and Heather Boddicker who gave them the gift of life and raised them in the faith of our Lord.

Mass Intention Request

If you have a Mass intention, please fill out one of the envelopes in the narthex. Place your Mass intention envelope with your $10 stipend in the basket. If you add your phone number or email address, we will confirm the date your Mass is scheduled. Thank you!

Altar Flowers at St. Ann

You can sponsor flowers for $40 a week in honor or memorial of a loved one. Their name and yours will be listed in the bulletin. Please make your checks payable to the Visitation Sodality and in the memo write flowers. Your gift will be assigned the next available week, unless you have a specific week in mind. Envelopes for flowers are in the back of the church and can be placed in the collection basket.

Thank you!

The Catholic Case for Labor

A Catholic scholar recently had some insights on Labor Day:

No other institution has claimed more members for more centuries than the Catholic Church. No group of trade unionists or communists or socialists can match it. The Church has long taken a lead on labor, preaching the dignity of the person and work from a spiritual perspective.

Communists and socialists, to the contrary, sought to separate the worker from the spiritual. The Church in turn, found itself under relentless attack by communists and socialists who tried to claim the worker.

In 1931 Pope Pius XI wrote: "Those who want to be apostles among socialists ought to profess Christian truth whole and entire, openly and sincerely, and not connive in error in any way."

In July of 2019 the Jesuit magazine America connived in error by printing an article by a member of the Canadian Communist Party stating there was a "Catholic case for communism." That flatly contradicted Pope Pius XI warning in 1931 that "... no one can be at the same time a good Catholic and a true socialist."

Many Catholics today, educated at leftist universities and unfaithful Catholic colleges, have never been taught about their Church's rich record against communist and socialist ideologies. They would be shocked, our Catholic scholar wrote, to learn about the initial Vatican II documents on communism from 1962 that were approved by the "General Session" of Vatican II, but were then mysteriously thrown out. Initially titled, "On the Care of Souls With Regard to Christians Infected with Communism", the approved title was "On the Apostolate of the Laity in Environments Imbued with Materialism, Particularly Marxism."

This document stated many Christians were enticed by communism, regarding it "as an effective way to bring about the perfect establishment of social justice, and, in fact, for obtaining a better salary or wage for less work, for receiving an equal part of the division and distribution of wealth and material goods, and for living a more comfortable and easier life. However, those who favor communism for economic convenience are mistaken."

The scholar wrote that Catholics should not be duped. If they want to support workers, they should do what Jesus would do, not what Karl Marx would do; what the Church would do, not what socialists would do. The Church, he wrote, has been blessed with wonderful teachings providing balanced and an integrated understanding of labor and economics, from Pope Leo XIII's 1891 Rerum Novarum to Pope John Paul II's 1991 Laborem Exercens, where the pope referred to man's call, his vocation to work.

The scholar wrote that in America today, on Labor Day, Catholic Americans don't need calls for "the Catholic case" for communism or socialism or other destructive atheistic creeds. They need to continue to follow the Catholic case for labor. (See Paul Kengor, The Catholic Case for Labor: What Would Jesus Do in the National Catholic Register.)

CATHOLIC MONTH OF SEPTEMBER

Virtue: Prayer

We must always pray, and not faint. ---Luke 18:1

Souls that have no habit of prayer are like a lame and paralytic body, which, though it has hands and feet, cannot use them. Therefore, to abandon prayer seems to me the same thing as to lose the straight road; for as prayer is the gate through which all the graces of God come to us, when this is closed, I do not know how we can have any.

- St. Teresa

September Devotion

Our Lady of Sorrows

V. O God, come to my assistance;
 R. O Lord, make haste to help me
 V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.
 R. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

(The Hail Mary is said after each verse.)

1. The Prophecy of Simeon (Luke 2:34-35)

I grieve for you, O Mary, most sorrowful, in the affliction of your tender heart at the prophecy of the holy and aged Simeon. Dear Mother, by your heart so afflicted, obtain for me the virtue of humility and the gift of the holy fear of God.

Hail Mary....

2. The Flight into Egypt (Matthew 2:13-21)

I grieve for you, O Mary most sorrowful, in the anguish of your most affectionate heart during the flight into Egypt and your sojourn there. Dear Mother, by your heart so troubled, obtain for me the virtue of generosity, especially toward the poor, and the gift of piety.

Hail Mary....

3. The Loss of Jesus for Three Days (Luke 2:41-50)

I grieve for you, O Mary most sorrowful, in those anxieties which tried your troubled heart at the loss of your dear Jesus. Dear Mother, by your heart so full of anguish, obtain for me the virtue of chastity and the gift of knowledge.

Hail Mary....

4. The Carrying of the Cross (John 19:17)

I grieve for you, O Mary most sorrowful, in the consternation of your heart at meeting Jesus as He carried His cross. Dear Mother, by your heart so troubled, obtain for me the virtue of patience and the gift of fortitude.

Hail Mary....

5. The Crucifixion of Jesus (John 19:18-30)

I grieve for you, O Mary most sorrowful, in the martyrdom which your generous heart endured in standing near Jesus in His agony. Dear Mother, by your afflicted heart, obtain for me the virtue of temperance and the gift of counsel.

Hail Mary....

6. Jesus Taken Down from the Cross (John 19:39-40)

I grieve for you, O Mary most sorrowful, in the wounding of your compassionate heart, when the side of Jesus was struck by the lance before His Body was removed from the cross. Dear Mother, by your heart thus transfixed, obtain for me the virtue of fraternal charity and the gift of understanding.

Hail Mary....

7. Jesus Laid in the Tomb (John 19:39-42)

I grieve for you, O Mary most sorrowful, for the pangs that wrenched your most loving heart at the burial of Jesus. Dear Mother, by your heart sunk in the bitterness of desolation, obtain for me the virtue of diligence and the gift of wisdom.

Hail Mary....

Let Us Pray: Let intercession be made for us, we beseech You, O Lord Jesus Christ, now and at the Hour of our death, before the throne of Your mercy, by the Blessed Virgin Mary, Your Mother, whose most holy soul was pierced by a sword of sorrow in the hour of Your bitter Passion. Through You, O Jesus Christ, Savior of the world, Who with the Father and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns world without end. Amen.
