FROM OUR PASTOR

DEAR FRIENDS IN CHRIST,

“Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of You.” These are the words of Sts. James and John. The Rich Young Man tries bartering with God and doesn’t want to make full gift of himself. A couple of sentences before in this episode, Jesus is walking ahead of the disciples. Some are amazed and some are following behind because they are afraid. Arrogance is not meekness or strength. We can imagine these two Apostles, the same ones who wanted to burn out the Samaritans for not accepting Jesus, rushing up to ask to be in line first. To ask to be at God’s right hand. It is as if they completely missed the message that Jesus had just taught and there only reaction was, “Fine, then. If questions don’t work, then just give it to me.” They don’t even know what they’re asking. The meek, as the Beatitudes say, inherit the land. What is the land they will inherit? The Heavenly Jerusalem. And the Lord’s quiet but strong demeanor welcomes them to drink the chalice that He will drink. Love, salvation, and peace do come at a cost. The cost is the cross. And those who want to receive these things, must too be willing to drink the same chalice that the Lord will drink.

Thank you to all who helped to make our parish’s 40 Hours Devotion a great success. I was very moved by all of your praying in front of the Blessed Sacrament as a parish family—from those who took one hour with the Lord to all who attended the devotions—it was a very inspiring experience and I pray it was for all of you as well. We need to spend time in front of the Lord and I was so very happy that all of you took the opportunity to do so. It is my hope that we will be able to do this every October.

That being said, I would like to kick off our new monthly adoration program in November. In the devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, Our Lord revealed to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque that He desired us to make a vigil of reparation on the Thursday evening before the First Friday. Because our parish is consecrated to the Sacred Heart and to promote better attendance and more accessible times to a larger group of parishioners, we will start this devotion next month. We will expose the Blessed Sacrament some time on the preceding Thursday evening and end with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament before First Friday Mass in the morning. He will transform you, me and our parish family in ways that we could not begin to imagine. As we get closer to our date (Thursday, November 4 through the morning of Friday, November 5), there will be a sign-up available in the back of the church. Until then, thank you for your participation!

Fr. Schneider
