FROM OUR PASTOR

DEAR FRIENDS IN CHRIST,

There are so many quote unquote types of acceptable relationships today in our society. The more advanced that the society gets, the more comfortable society gets, and the comfortable society gets, the more morally lax it becomes.

While everyone yearns for relationship in his/her life, Jesus lays down the true meaning of Genesis—marriage is the primordial sacrament or sign. We see it with God and His People Israel, we see it with Christ and the Church, and then we see it lived naturally and supernaturally in marriage between a male and a female which is open to life.

Such a fundamental truth, one would think, would not be offensive, yet simply for reiterating what the Lord Incarnate has laid down for peace, order and joy in our lives is one of the most controversial statements today. Marriage is meant to last until death and not end in divorce. Marriage is meant to beget children and populate the earth. Even in the Gospel, one could see how the followers of the Lord try and rebuke children from approaching the Lord. Let us welcome this truth of the Holy Gospel in our lives, that the Word of God might live in us, shape our thinking, and bring us joy which comes from following the way set forth for us from the mouth of God Himself.

This past week, we celebrated Michaelmas or the Feast of St. Michael the Archangel which now includes the rest of the archangels as well. How often do we call upon angelic assistance in our lives? Angels are intellectual spirits created by God with no body. They glorify God in His Heavenly Court and St. Michael in protector is the one who protects us from evil.

Lastly, if you have not yet signed up for Forty Hours Adoration (there are a few spots that remain), I would like to encourage you to take this opportunity for silence in front of the Eucharistic Lord. What do we fear the most by coming or not coming to Him? Silence is a hard thing in front of God Himself, but He will transform us to be like Him when we acquiesce to His Divine Presence.

Fr. Schneider
