LENTEN TALKS

ABANDONMENT TO DIVINE PROVIDENCE: HOW EASY IT IS TO BE HOLY

Tuesday March 8th 7:00PM

Start this Lent with a talk by parishioner/teacher, Terry Miller. How to obtain peace within our incredibly chaotic world! Come learn how to surrender to God, based upon the spiritual classic by Fr. Caussade a French priest, who lived until 1751.

THE LENTEN TRADITIONS OF ROME

Tuesday March March 22nd 7:00PM

Come and explore the ancient and early medieval liturgical traditions of the city of Rome. Much of this rich heritage has been lost, but as Catholics whose tradition has shaped all of Western Europe and Western Civilization, we have the opportunity to take an hour-long bird's eye view of the fabric that forms us even until this day.

These talks are for adults and teens in the hall. Nursing infants are welcome.

ALTAR SERVER TRAINING

From Fr. Schneider:

Sever training after Mass on the First Sunday of Lent, March 6th. If you are a young man 4th grade and up, I am asking for your service at the altar. Particularly, I need young adult men (teens) to step up and serve.

FROM OUR PASTOR

DEAR FRIENDS IN CHRIST-

On this Sunday before the beginning of the Lent, we are exhorted in several ways to prepare ourselves. Whether in the Gospel today which calls us to charity and a coherence between what we say and what we do and how we live, to even what the Traditional readings call us to do for Quinquagesima Sunday—which is, to meditate on the precept of charity and to be ready to follow the Christ all the way to Jerusalem.

To go up to Jerusalem in the mind of the disciples is something that they cannot grasp, cannot understand. They cannot comprehend the suffering Savior; their eyes are closed and honestly, so are our eyes as well. When we begin Lent on Wednesday, we embark on a journey and it is a journey that leads to the Hill of Golgotha all through Jesus' bloody Passion and Death. Without the eyes of Faith, our penance is meaningless. Lent is about embracing the cross of Christ that we might experience the total re-ordering of our souls and bodies to be like His Risen Body. The effect of our penance is a foretaste of what is to come—absolute freedom and no attachment to this world, but only to God Himself. As we begin on Wednesday, let us spend these days being re-ordered by God's grace and accompanying the Lord in the desert.

Ash Wednesday is a day of fasting and abstinence from flesh meat. Fasting is obligatory for those over the age of 21 until 59 and abstinence is obligatory for those over the age of 14. Fasting means one full meal a day with two lesser ones permitted as long as they do not add up to full meal.

Mass schedule for Ash Wednesday, March 2nd :

7:00AM St. Joseph in Easton
7:00PM St. Ann in Plattsburg
Fr. Schneider
