MARCH VIRTUE: MORTIFICATION

One of the things that keep us at a distance from perfection is, without doubt, our tongue. For when one has gone so far as to commit no faults in speaking, the Holy Spirit Himself assures us that he is perfect. And since the worst way of speaking is to speak too much, speak little and well, little and gently, little and simply, little and charitably, little and amiably. -St. FRANCIS DE SALES

MARCH CATHOLIC MONTH OF ST. JOSEPH

Unfailing Novena to St. Joseph

This prayer, it is said, has "has never been known to fail, provided that the request is for one's spiritual benefit or for those whom we are praying for." Pray it for nine mornings.

O St. Joseph, whose protection is so great, so strong, so prompt before the throne of God, I place in you all my interest and desires.

O St. Joseph, do assist me by your powerful intercession, and obtain for me from your divine Son all spiritual blessings, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. So that, having engaged here below your heavenly power, I may offer my thanksgiving and homage to the most loving of Fathers.

O St. Joseph, I never weary of contemplating you, and Jesus asleep in your arms; I dare not approach while He reposes near your heart. Press Him close in my name and kiss His fine head for me and ask Him to return the kiss when I draw my dying breath. St. Joseph, patron of departing souls, pray for me. Amen.

If you have reasonable cause to suspect sexual abuse of a minor or vulnerable adult, you must call: The Missouri Child Abuse Hotline at 1.800.392.3738, if the victim is under the age of 18. The Missouri Adult Abuse and Neglect Hotline at 1.800.392.0210, if the victim is a vulnerable adult. Local law enforcement or 911 if you believe the person is in immediate danger. If the suspected abuser is an employee, volunteer, priest or deacon in the Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph, please report to the Independent Ombudsman at (816) 812-2500 or crayon@ombudsmankcsj.org.

FROM OUR PASTOR

DEAR FRIENDS IN CHRIST-

Each year, the readings for Lenten Sundays ask us to see, as St. Paul says, through darkly through a mirror. That is, it is not exactly clear to us, yet as followers of Christ in the desert, exactly the full glory (which means exposed excellence in a theological sense) of the mysteries. Today, we see dimly the resurrection of Christ in glory through the mystery of the Transfiguration. Easter Sunday will be a bookend to this mystery. In the account of the Lord's transfiguration, He is white as snow; Moses and Elijah are present as well which fulfills a type; Jesus Christ is the fulfillment of the Law and the Prophets. He is both personified because He is the Word of God made flesh. In this extraordinary encounter where Peter, James and John are privileged to witness Christ in all of His glory, we notice that they are speechless and want to build "tents" for Moses, Elijah a Jesus. It is a sort of transcendent, yet imminent experience of God, much like we have in our tent or tabernacle in the Church with the glory of God presence under the appearances of bread and wine.

Our Lord allows these chosen disciples to see who He really is—the Son of God—and to glimpse the glory that will be in the resurrection. This should give us hope as we continue to journey with Him through His Passion and Death. Our Lord has the last word over death and the grave because He is the splendor of the Father.

Fr. Schneider

ACOLYTE ALTAR SERVER TRAINING

From Fr. Schneider:

Next server training is after 10:00AM, holy mass Sunday March 20th. It is for the younger boys, who will be trained to be acolytes.

THE LENTEN TRADITIONS OF ROME

Tuesday March 22nd 7:00PM

Come and explore the ancient and early medieval liturgical traditions of the city of Rome with Fr. Schneider. Much of this rich heritage has been lost, but as Catholics whose tradition has shaped all of Western Europe and Western Civilization, we have the opportunity to take an hour-long bird's eye view of the fabric that forms us even until this day.

This talk is for adults and teens in the hall. Nursing infants are welcome.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

REV. DENIS KELLY COUNCIL #9401

The Knights of Columbus is a fraternal men's organization that seeks to serve our parish, assist the pastor in his ministry, and serve our wider community in a spirit of dedication to our Catholic Faith and to its mission. Meetings take place on the 3rd

Tuesday of the month. Interested? Please contact either the parish office at stannplattsburg@gmail.com or Eric Niemann, recruiter at eniemann@1791.com.
