MARCH CATHOLIC MONTH OF ST. JOSEPH

Unfailing Novena to St. Joseph

This prayer, it is said, has "has never been known to fail, provided that the request is for one's spiritual benefit or for those whom we are praying for." Pray it for nine mornings.

O St. Joseph, whose protection is so great, so strong, so prompt before the throne of God, I place in you all my interest and desires.

O St. Joseph, do assist me by your powerful intercession, and obtain for me from your divine Son all spiritual blessings, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. So that, having engaged here below your heavenly power, I may offer my thanksgiving and homage to the most loving of Fathers.

O St. Joseph, I never weary of contemplating you, and Jesus asleep in your arms; I dare not approach while He reposes near your heart. Press Him close in my name and kiss His fine head for me and ask Him to return the kiss when I draw my dying breath. St. Joseph, patron of departing souls, pray for me. Amen.

FROM OUR PASTOR

DEAR FRIENDS IN CHRIST-

As we make our way through Lent, we arrive at this Third Week. The Third Week in Lent, I always thought, can seem the most distant from the Empty Tomb. It is here that traditionally the Catechumens of the Church began to prepare for their entry at the Easter Vigil by receiving various scrutinies and exorcisms.

Today's Gospel in Year C has Jesus reminding us of the theme of repentance in our lives. Repentance has to do with the concept of conversion or literally a turning away from something towards something else. In this case, we turn away from privation and licentiousness and exchange sinful activity purposefully for turning towards Almighty God and His ways which fill us ultimately with life and not death.

The traditional Gospel for this Sunday has Jesus casting out a devil and His onlookers accusing Him of using the devil to cast out the devil. How much Jesus Christ is misunderstood and derided for His Sacred Mission! Jesus Christ has come into the world to redeem it, to de-throne the devil by the cross, and to free us from sin and death; yet, we are ungrateful for this opportunity for repentance and true change of life. That is the key here in this Third Sunday of Lent—we should not grow weary, but re-examine our Lenten resolutions and continue to choose virtue and obedience to the ways of Christ so that we might be saved.

THE LENTEN TRADITIONS OF ROME

Tuesday March March 22nd 7:00PM

Come and explore the ancient and early medieval liturgical traditions of the city of Rome with Fr. Schneider. Much of this rich heritage has been lost, but as Catholics whose tradition has shaped all of Western Europe and Western Civilization, we have the opportunity to take an hour-long bird's eye view of the fabric that forms us even until this day.

This talk is for adults and teens in the hall. Nursing infants are welcome.
