MARCH CATHOLIC MONTH OF ST. JOSEPH

Unfailing Novena to St. Joseph

This prayer, it is said, has "has never been known to fail, provided that the request is for one's spiritual benefit or for those whom we are praying for." Pray it for nine mornings.

O St. Joseph, whose protection is so great, so strong, so prompt before the throne of God, I place in you all my interest and desires.

O St. Joseph, do assist me by your powerful intercession, and obtain for me from your divine Son all spiritual blessings, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. So that, having engaged here below your heavenly power, I may offer my thanksgiving and homage to the most loving of Fathers.

O St. Joseph, I never weary of contemplating you, and Jesus asleep in your arms; I dare not approach while He reposes near your heart. Press Him close in my name and kiss His fine head for me and ask Him to return the kiss when I draw my dying breath. St. Joseph, patron of departing souls, pray for me. Amen.

DEAR FRIENDS IN CHRIST-

What is the difference between generosity and prodigality? They are both a sort of liberality in the virtuous sense, but one is based on sacrifice for the other, the other is based on oneself. When we hear the story of the Prodigal Son on this Laetare Sunday, we see him so wasteful of the gifts that he has been given that he ends up literally in a pig pen. For the ancient Jewish People and even for some today, a pig is an unclean animal. One might say that sometimes, one needs to hit rock bottom before realizing what has been lost. When one compares this with his father's response, it is not prodigality, but an effusive generosity in the face of repentance. On this Sunday where we rejoice at being midway through Lent, we remember the generosity that waits us when we acquiesce to the grace of God. We will see what we have missed and we will be welcomed home.

Fr. Schneider
