LENTEN TALKS

ABANDONMENT TO DIVINE PROVIDENCE:
 HOW EASY IT IS TO BE HOLY

Tuesday March 8th 7:00PM

Start this Lent with a talk by parishioner/teacher, Terry Miller. How to obtain peace within our incredibly chaotic world! Come learn how to surrender to God, based upon the spiritual classic by Fr. Caussade a French priest, who lived until 1751.

THE LENTEN TRADITIONS OF ROME

Tuesday March March 22nd 7:00PM

Come and explore the ancient and early medieval liturgical traditions of the city of Rome. Much of this rich heritage has been lost, but as Catholics whose tradition has shaped all of Western Europe and Western Civilization, we have the opportunity to take an hour-long bird's eye view of the fabric that forms us even until this day.

*These talks are for adults and teens in the hall.
 Nursing infants are welcome.*

FROM OUR PASTOR

DEAR FRIENDS IN CHRIST-

Every year, during the First Week of Lent, we hear of Jesus making His journey into the desert. We can imagine the climate—hot during the day, and freezing at night. It is an experience of the extremes. In our Lenten journey, we, too proverbially enter into the desert with Christ.

When we think of the early Church and the development of monasticism, we think of saints such as St. Anthony of the Desert or St. Benedict of Nursia—they longed for solitude because in solitude and silence, we are made to confront our weaknesses, to fight our interior battles, our sins against God. Lent is the Church's great retreat. If being a good Christian simply meant being "nice," then we could simply join any church, any organization, do some charitable work, be a decent person and return home.

The true and authentic Christian journey has the cross at its forefront; it has the sacramental life at the core. Without God's grace, there is no salvation. St. Paul writes that without charity we are like a "clanging gong." Charity means not "love" in the common sense, but the supernatural love of the Triune God. This is perfected in aestheticism and penance. If we want to be perfected, we must confront our own sins first headlong. We must enter into the desert willingly with Christ. Lent, although penitential, is a time of joy—to rediscover again in the time away and the silence our true homeland—Heaven—on our journey to Jerusalem.

Fr. Schneider

MARCH VIRTUE: MORTIFICATION

The principal thing upon which we have to turn our attention, that we may mortify it eradicate it from our hearts, is the predominant passion — that is, the affection, inclination, vice, or bad habit, which reigns most in us, which makes us its most frequently causes us to fall into grave transgressions. When the king is taken, the battle is won. And until we do this, we shall make no great advance in perfection. -ST. ALPHONSUS RODRIGUEZ
