TOMORROW'S PRIEST COLLECTION | MAY 14-15

Seminarian education is among the largest expenses of our diocese, but also one of the greatest investments we can make for our future. With tuition, room, board and other expenses, the cost of educating a single seminarian is about $45,000 per year.

The Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph ask you to prayerfully consider donating to the Tomorrow's Priest Collection held the weekend of May 14-15—this collection offsets expenses for our men in formation for the priesthood. A mailer with donation envelope will be sent to all registered parishioners in the diocese, but you can also contribute via the 2nd collection at Mass the weekend of May 14-15 or donate online at kcpriest.org/tomorrows-priest-collection. In addition to financial support, please pray that Our Lord will continue to increase the number of men from our Diocese being called to the priesthood. All are invited to attend the upcoming Transitional Diaconate Ordination held 10 am May 28 at the Co-Cathedral in St. Joseph, and the Priesthood Ordination held 10 am June 25 at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception. Thank you for your continued support of priestly vocations!

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Johannes erluchtet das neue Jerusalem.
Und ich führe einen neuen Himmel und eine neue Erde. Denn der erste Himmel und die erste Erde vergingen, und das Meer ist nicht mehr. Und ich, Johannes, sah die heilige Stadt, das neue Jerusalem, von Gott her absteigend vom Himmel, geordnet als eine gefestigte Stadt ihrem Herrn.

Dear Friends In Christ-

It is necessary to undergo many hardships to enter the Kingdom of God. This is what Sts. Paul and Barnabas tell us in the Acts of the Apostles when they describe their early evangelization efforts. Today, we are living in a post-Christian society much like the pagan world of our fathers in the Faith. Not only did they face their own religious establishment of the day, but also paganism or the rural local religions which believed in a variety of gods and goddesses. The situation we face to announce the Gospel is similar in many respects. The religious establishment of our day has become Pharisaical taking the actual Law of God in their own hands in some nations. One must not look further than some German Bishops who are seeking actively in many ways to reverse Gospel morality and make a religion based on how they live rather than following the words of Christ which teach us how to live. They have received many rebukes from other bishops' conferences in Europe as well as even American bishops who have written to them. In addition, we face modern paganism, even a resurgence of outward satanic symbols and practice in many of the establishment elite. This is no different than the Roman empire with its odd rituals or even the Barbarians and Celts of the North that Christian missionaries such as St. Patrick, St. Boniface or St. Martin of Tours encountered. To be a Christian today cannot be simply a rote encounter with the Lord or even a habitual comfortable practice that we take for granted. To be a Christian today has indeed come full circle to exactly what the Apostle Paul exclaimed so many times when spreading the message of Christ in the world—it is necessary to undergo many hardships to enter the Kingdom of God.

Nothing is so edifying as charitable meekness. Like oil in a lamp, it keeps the flame of good example burning.

CATHOLIC MONTH OF: THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

TO MARY, REFUGE OF SINNERS

Hail, most gracious Mother of mercy, hail, Mary, for whom we fondly yearn, through whom we obtain forgiveness! Who would not love thee? Thou art our light in uncertainty, our comfort in sorrow, our solace in the time of trial, our refuge from every peril and temptation. Thou art our sure hope of salvation, second only to thy only-begotten Son; blessed are they who love thee, our Lady! Incline, I beseech thee, thy ears of pity to the entreaties of this thy servant, a miserable sinner; dissipate the darkness of my sins by the bright beams of thy holiness, in order that I may be acceptable in thy sight.
