Dear Friends In Christ-

This coming week, the Church's traditional day for the Ascension is Thursday, May 26th. In our ecclesiastical province of Missouri, it is no longer a holy day of obligation and falls on Sunday. That being said, we can often wonder about how the liturgical year actually applies to our lives. The Church, in her wisdom and most especially throughout the ages, pondered this question and by the movement of the Holy Spirit showed forth God's grace in our lives throughout different times of the year. The days leading up to Ascension Thursday are no different; they were called Minor Rogations Days. Rogation days are days in which a penitential Mass is celebrated and a procession forms to sprinkle the crops that have been planted and to ask God for a bountiful harvest. The Major Rogation day is April 25, the Feast of St. Mark, which has its origins in Rome in the early Church and which replaced a pagan custom with asking the Triune God for His blessing over the earth. The Minor Rogation days developed in the 400s in Gaul (modern-day France) after a plague of bad weather. We moderns often fail to associate God with the world. It is easy to circumscribe Him to one day of the week. God acts in the world and for that reason, we depend on Him as good children for the fruits of the earth, good weather, and for our livelihood. Though the modern Roman calendar no longer employs Rogations days as a means of asking God for this blessing, we could do it ourselves. Sprinkle some Holy Water on your crops, around your home, your garden. Pray the Litany of Saints as a family on these days and ask God's protection upon your material goods and food before we celebrate the Risen Lord leaving us for Heaven.

This past Friday, May 20th, several young men graduated from the Frassati Academy which our parish hosts two days a week. We are deeply appreciative to the teachers, parents, and administrators who spend many hours to shape these young men's lives and give them a classical education. It is an honor to have the school at our parish in Plattsburg. We wish the young men who have graduated and will go onto work or school many blessings and congratulations as they transition from high school to their young adult lives.

CATHOLIC MONTH OF: THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

TO MARY, REFUGE OF SINNERS

Hail, most gracious Mother of mercy, hail, Mary, for whom we fondly yearn, through whom we obtain forgiveness! Who would not love thee? Thou art our light in uncertainty, our comfort in sorrow, our solace in the time of trial, our refuge from every peril and temptation. Thou art our sure hope of salvation, second only to thy only-begotten Son; blessed are they who love thee, our Lady! Incline, I beseech thee, thy ears of pity to the entreaties of this thy servant, a miserable sinner; dissipate the darkness of my sins by the bright beams of thy holiness, in order that I may be acceptable in thy sight.
