Dear Friends In Christ-

After Luke’s version of the Our Father, Jesus talks about a man knocking on the door of his neighbor at midnight to ask for a loaf of bread. For you and me, that would be annoying, but it wouldn’t be much to go to the kitchen, go back to the door, and give a piece of bread. In an ancient house, such as this one, the man would’ve had to climb over his sleeping family and probably wake everyone up just to get to the door. Obstacles in life may seem insurmountable at times—perseverance is what we are asked to do. Jesus than extrapolates this human narrative with persistence with God and we learn that God Himself doesn’t give scorpions or snakes when we ask for something good. Because of the disappointments in our own lives, we can often project onto God our experiences of failure. God is not like this. It doesn’t mean that everything that we pray for may be good for us, though. When we knock, when are persistent not our own abilities, but we are dependent upon God, there is a sense of peace there knowing that the Father we ask will provide.

This Sunday, we have our annual St. Ann Day Mass and parish picnic! Even if you come to 4:00PM Mass on Saturday, I’d love to invite you to the parish picnic which will begin at 4:00PM with hog roast and live music by the Happy Wanderers.

I would like to thank the following people for the last week of summer catechism and for our parish picnic!

*The Filiae Laboris Mariae sisters from MN for teaching our children and adults this week and for singing Sunday Mass for us.

*Tony and Roxanne Ratzloff for all of their hard work and organization in preparing the materials for the summer camp.

*Tom and Sherri Kutz for hosting the sisters on their stay here.

*Somyia Finley and Amie Friedl for preparing the meals for the sisters.

*Ben and Meghan Richey for donating the delicious hog for our parish picnic.

*Paradise Locker Meats for preparing the hog.

*A hearty thank you as well for the Visitation Ladies Sodality for preparing for our picnic and for all of the moms and volunteers who helped with classroom activities this week.

*Lastly, I would like to thank the Plattsburg Police Department for escorting our procession throughout the town.

-Fr. Schneider

MASS INTENTIONS

CATHOLIC MONTH OF JULY

VIRTUE: SIMPLICITY

With those who are perfect and walk with simplicity, there is nothing small and contemptible, if it be a thing that pleases God; for the pleasure of God is the object at which alone they aim, and which is the reason, the measure, and the reward of all their occupations, actions, and plans; and so, in whatever they find this, it is for them a great and important thing.

—ST. ALPHONSUS RODRIGUEZ

DEVOTION: LITANY OF PRECIOUS BLOOD CLOSING PRAYER

Almighty, and everlasting God, Who hast appointed Thine only-begotten Son to be the Redeemer of the world, and hast been pleased to be reconciled unto us by His Blood, grant us, we beseech Thee, so to venerate with solemn worship the price of our salvation, that the power thereof may here on earth keep us from all things hurtful, and the fruit of the same may gladden us forever hereafter in heaven. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

ALTAR FLOWERS AT ST. ANN

You can now sponsor our altar flowers! It is $40 to sponsor a week in honor or memoriam of a loved one. Their name and yours will be listed in the bulletin. Please make your checks payable to the Visitation Sodality and in the memo, write the name of the person you would like to honor. Your gift will be assigned the next available week, unless you have a specific week in mind and then email stannplattsburg@gmail.com to schedule it. Thank you in advance for your generosity!
