The Domestic Church is a movement of married couples who wish to live out their sacrament to the fullest with the help of God and a small group of other couples along with their parish priest. Would you like to grow together in your marriage and your faith?

The Domestic Church Movement provides formation using the Church’s spiritual tradition and official teachings, for how to pray, how to use Scripture in prayer, and how to grow in a real relationship with God, our spouses, and our children in light of our baptism. It began under the leadership of Fr. Franciszek Blachnicki, a close collaborator with Pope St. John Paul II who was the Archbishop who oversaw the founding of this movement in Poland in 1973.

During the Light-Life married couples retreat, couples are invited to dedicate their faith life and marriage more fully to God and His good plan for their marriage and they are introduced to the basics of the 7 commitments that make up the “method” for the Domestic Church movement.

St. Ann’s has one circle with 7 member couples. Please express your interest in joining a circle and attending the retreat by contacting Dino and Cathy Durando at durando@diocesekcsj.org.

FROM OUR PASTOR

DEAR FRIENDS IN CHRIST,

What defiles a person? The Lord gives us the answer today. It is sin that defiles, not the laws of men that are not rooted in the Eternal Law of God. So much is attributed to Our Lord that is an incorrect characterization of Him. The “socialist” Jesus is still a false version that is propagated today in our time. A Jesus who never mentions sin, but only mercy without any repentance. When we hear about the Pharisees, it is simple to put them in a box or even pick out external things today in the Church that point to alleged Phariseeism—the external trappings of the Church, vestments, cassocks, incense—or my favorite, “clericalism.” That’s too easy. The real Phariseeism is purporting to be someone one is not. The real Phariseeism is taking one’s role of authority and enjoying all of the perks of the job without providing any service to those one promised to serve. And the Pharisees did this—they exhorted people to hold to all of the Mosaic Law dietary and cleanliness laws, (Jesus never said to cancel the Law) but always found ways around the spirit of the law for themselves, a sort of elitism—rules for thee, not for me! This, Our Lord did take great offense to.

Rather, the spirit of all law is charity, love of God and by extension, love of neighbor. One becomes “unclean” from the inside from the sinful thoughts and actions that the Lord is mentioning. We must be authentic—it is not about appearing to be holy. The externals that we use should challenge us to live up to what they represent. They should be reminders of our interior life and where our interior life is lacking, it needs to be shored up to be in accord with the Gospel.

Fr. Schneider
