Dear Friends In Christ-

What does it mean to be vigilant? It means that we live prophetically. To live prophetically means to live the Words of the Gospel in the present moment and be witnesses to the world. Not sometime in the distant future, but right now. To be vigilant means to live a life that is examined, to live “awake” and not asleep inhibited by sensory delight and comfort.

In the Post-Modern West, just like our cuisine, our spiritual lives have often lost their flavor. Being religious and being spiritual have been wrongfully cleaved. And when we claim to be spiritual and no longer religious what we are really saying is that we don’t want any sort of obligation to anyone. We don’t owe anything to anyone, in other words, including God.

If we are not vigilant, if we do not live lives that constantly wait for the coming of the Lord, our salt will lose its flavor. The weeds will grow and choke any sort of desire to grow in holiness.

Let us stay awake, even during these last warm months, yearning and waiting for the coming of the Kingdom and boldly announcing that same Kingdom to those in our time.

-Fr. Schneider

CATHOLIC MONTH OF AUGUST

VIRTUE: DILIGENCE

All our good and all our evil certainly lies in the character of our actions. As they are, so are we; for we are the tree, and they the fruit, and, therefore, they prove what each one is.

-ST. AUGUSTINE

DEVOTION: IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY

OMARY, Virgin most powerful and Mother of mercy, Queen of Heaven and Refuge of sinners, we consecrate ourselves to thine Immaculate Heart.

We consecrate to thee our very being and our whole life; all that we have, all that we love, all that we are. To thee we give our bodies, our hearts and our souls; to thee we give our homes, our families, our country. We desire that all that is in us and around us may belong to thee, and may share in the benefits of thy motherly benediction. And that this act of consecration may be truly efficacious and lasting, we renew this day at thy feet the promises of our Baptism and our first Holy Communion. We pledge ourselves to profess courageously and at all times the truths of our holy Faith, and to live as befits Catholics who are duly submissive to all the directions of the Pope and the Bishops in communion with him. We pledge ourselves to keep the commandments of God and His Church, in particular to keep holy the Lord’s Day. We likewise pledge ourselves to make the consoling practices of the Christian religion, and above all, Holy Communion, an integral part of our lives, in so far as we shall be able so to do.

Finally, we promise thee, O glorious Mother of God and loving Mother of men, to devote ourselves whole-heartedly to the service of thy blessed cult, in order to hasten and assure, through the sovereignty of thine Immaculate Heart, the coming of the kingdom of the Sacred Heart of thine adorable Son, in our own hearts and in those of all men, in our country and in all the world. As in heaven, so on earth. Amen.
