MASS INTENTIONS

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Friends in Christ,

As Elijah wanders about and is fed miraculously from God, so the Hebrews also wandered about generations before. And at the moment of their displeasure and desperation, they were fed miraculously by the hand of God Himself. In the New Dispensation, it is God Who gives us the gift of Himself to eat. No longer is it miraculous natural food, but now the substance of bread and wine cease to exist and are only under the appearances of bread and wine. The substance is God Himself. As the Word became Flesh and "pitched His tent or tabernacle among us," our own parish church contains His Real Presence among us. While God is transcendent, He makes Himself imminent or physically among us, His people, the new Israel, the Church. As we approach to receive the True Bread from Heaven, it is good and praiseworthy to remember the way in which we receive Him. I would like to remind people that the normative way in the Church to receive Holy Communion since the early middle ages, if not earlier, is for the priest, the representative of Christ, to feed the communicant the Body and Blood of the Lord. It is not to feed ourselves, for we must be utterly dependent upon God. Learning about the Bread from Heaven gives us pause to think of the way in which we receive Holy Communion. We show our belief (or lack thereof) in the way in which we receive the Lord. Let us be attentive and approach the sanctuary of the Lord where He appears to feed us with His Body and Blood.

Fr. Schneider
