Visitation Sodality

The Visitation Sodality is an organization made up of all age ladies, dedicated to serving the parish and our Priest. We strive to support the liturgy and the altar, social functions and funerals. Please consider joining us in our mission to serve our parish family.

Meetings:
No Meetings thru end of year
Come check out our store located in the Parish Hall. We have sacramentals, gifts, books, veils, and more! All proceeds go to serving our Church and our

Plattsburg Nursing
Home Apostolate

Members of our parish are currently visiting residents at Oakridge and Nick's Healthcare Center here in Plattsburg. If you would like to be a part of this ministry, contact Terry and Carleen Miller

Legion of Mary

The Legion of Mary is a world wide lay apostolic association of Catholics dedicated to praying and working for Mary for the salvation of souls. The parish needs people willing to give a little of their time to Mary. There's not a better person to pray and work for but Mary, and not a better reason to pray and work than for the salvation of souls.

ST. ANN CAR DECALS

St. Ann Catholic Church decals have been made and they are now available. There are two versions...one White and another Navy Blue. We are asking for a $5.00 donation for each sticker.

These decals are not only attractive, but they also will serve as an extended sign of unity within our parish. As non-Catholics see them on our vehicles with frequency, it may help stimulate their interest in our parish and our Catholic faith. Descriptions of symbolic meanings of the images on the decal are also available.

PUBLIC ROSARY RALLY

Please join the Legion of Mary praying the rosary on Saturday, October 10 at NOON at the corner of Highway 116 & C. This will be during the Plattsburg Fall Festival.

FATHER FENLON HOME VISITS

Visits have been going great! Scheduling will continue after Father's retreat next week. The parish office will be reaching out to those who have signed up to schedule a date. Thank you for welcoming him!

ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL (ACA)

We are grateful for the generosity of our parish community and all who have supported the Annual Catholic Appeal. Thank you to everyone who has made a gift or pledge. While we celebrate what we have accomplished together, there is still time to be part of this year's Annual Catholic Appeal. If you have not accepted the invitation to participate, you still can. Visit kcsj catholic.org to make your commitment today. Thank you again for your continued generosity!

Twenty-seventh Sunday of Ordinary Time

Prayer to St. Ann

Good St. Ann, you were especially favored by God to be the mother of the most Holy Virgin Mary and the grandmother of our Lord Jesus Christ. By your power with your most pure daughter and her Divine Son, kindly obtain for us the grace of the favor we now seek. Please also secure for us the forgiveness of our past sins, the help our family needs to persevere in the love of Jesus and Mary, and for us all someday to be with them and you and all the saints. Amen

Catholic Virtue for October

CONFIDENCE

Ecce ego vobiscum sum-

Behold I am with you.--Matt. 28:20

God certainly desires our greatest good more than we ourselves desire it. He knows better than we by what way it can come to us; and the choice of ways is wholly in His hands, as it is He who governs and regulates all that occurs in the world. It is, then, most certain that in all chances that can befall, whatever may happen will always be best for us.----St. Augustine

We are firmly convinced that the truths of faith cannot deceive us, and yet we cannot bring ourselves to trust to them; nay, we are far more ready to trust to human reasonings and the deceitful appearance of this world. This, then, is the cause of our slight progress in virtue, and of our small success in what concerns the glory of God.----St. Vincent de Paul

Thoughts from The Pastor

This article continues the Meditation on the Principle and Foundation of the Spiritual life found in the Spiritual Exercises. The original text continues saying:

...the other things on the face of the earth are created for man and that they may help him in prosecuting the end for which he is created.

There are two categories of things in existence - the first is ‘you’, the second is ‘things made for you’. What about other people, you may ask? Doesn’t that sound egocentric? For God, the individual is everything, and He regards each of us as if we were the only ones – so all of creation, including the angels and mankind, transpires towards your salvation, and you towards theirs, in a perfectly seamless and interwoven reality.

‘The other things on the face of the earth are created for man, that they may help him.

For you means to help you reach the goal for which you are created, which is to praise, reverence, serve God, and thus to save your soul. Creation is not there to give you pleasure, or rest, or ease. Saving your soul might be uncomfortable. It might be excruciatingly painful at times. God has given us the means to reach that end. What attitude do I have towards the action of God that might seem at odds with my natural dispositions? Am I open to seeing Him not only in those things that are convenient towards me, but also in those that frustrate and wear on me?

And remember, ‘things’ does not just mean ‘objects’. Temperaments are created to help us mutually enrich each other, but also to grow in patience with each other.

Weaknesses are created to give us cause for humility and trust in God. Disasters and trials occur to purify us of our self-love, to change our path, to sanctify us beyond our own wildest dreams. We must learn to think outside the box, if we are to hear the voice of the Lord speaking to us in the wilderness of this life!
